

view of the whole it is necessary to regard to the peculiar normal circumstances times through which we have been living for the two decades.

MIR NA TIRE SHOW AT SAVOY.

ing their very successful last Sunday. Muintir na present a "Fireside Chat" Savoy Cinema on Sunday next, May 9th, at 8.30

Among the well-known who will appear is that young Dublin tenor, Mich-y, whom Limerick audience have been waiting a long time to hear. He has been described as "the Golden-Voiced Tenor," well known as an artiste of theatre, radio and gramophone.

His appearance should be a compelling attraction. Another important engagement for the occasion is the well-known exponent of classical music, Cormac Mac

Donnell, violinist, who is coming from Dublin to deliver a specially arranged programme. Also appearing is Thomas Cooney, the Waterford tenor, who has sung with the Dublin Grand Opera Society and also a Feis Ceoil Medalist.

The Herbuoy Band will render pieces of Sousa marches, Strauss and Gilbert and Sullivan opera music. Included in the programme also are the Halpin of Dancing, while on this occasion Mr. Stanley Bowyer, will render a recital of music from "The Pirates of the Caribbean." Booking is now open and is now open.

FOUND DROWNED

Verdict of found drowned was returned by the Coroner (Mr. G. A.
O'Connell) at an inquest on William O'Connell (38), cycle agent, 46 Maner Waterford, whose body was retrieved from the River Suir.

(1) Caherline A.C., 39 points; (2) Kildimo A.C., 42 points

Individual placings were as follows:—1, T. A. Walsh, Caherline A.C.; 2, J. Ruddle, Kildimo A.C.; 3, P. Walsh, Caherline A.C.; 4, J.
Greensmith, Caherline A.C.

The Perpetual Challenge Cup was presented to T. A. Walsh by Mr. Michael Slattery, Secretary, Limerick Co. Board, N.A. and C.A.

DEATH OF CO. LIMERICK NUN

The death has occurred at the Convent of Mercy, Birr, of Sister M. Etna Dore, daughter of Mrs.
Dore and the late Mr. M. Dore, builder and contractor, Glin (writes our Glin correspondent).
The deceased nun was one of three sisters who gave their lives to God forty years ago. She was sister of Messrs. John, Michael, James and Joseph Dore, Glin, and of Miss Nellie Dore, District Hospital, Mal-low, to all of whom deepest sympathy is offered.

SWEEP LUCK FAVOURS ATHEA

For the first time since the inauguration of the Irish Hospital Sweepstake (writes our Athea correspondent) a prize has found its way to Athea. Philomena Liston, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Liston, of Athea, was the recipient of a wire on the day of the Draw that she had drawn the non-runner, "Benedict." Heartiest congratulations are extended to parents and child.

PAINTER FATALLY INJURED

Mr. John Carey (84), noted painter of animals and only surviving brother of the late J. W.
Carey, who achieved distinction as a landscape painter, was crossing Upper Newtownards Road, near his home, in Belfast, when he was knocked down by a trolley bus and fatally injured. A verdict of accidental death was returned at the inquest.

Island, to the local Red Cross Branch was also gratefully acknowledged.

NEW OPENING

We direct attention to advertisement on the front page of this issue announcing that Mr. Dan Red-dan, a popular member of the Limerick Corporation, has now opened the well-known licensed premises, Aughrim House, Wolfe-Tone Street, Limerick. A new lounge bar, splendidly furnished should ensure that patrons will have best drinks, well served in comfortable surroundings.

DEATH OF LIMERICK PRIEST

We announce with much regret the death of Rev. W. J. Meade, C.C.
Abbeyfeale, who passed away yesterday in Milford House, Limerick. A very zealous young priest Father Meade was held in the highest esteem by all classes.
Requiem High Mass will be celebrated in St. Michael's Church, Limerick, at 12 o'clock (new time) to-morrow (Saturday).

BILLIARDS AT FOYNES

In the semi-finals of the billiards tournament, organised by the committee of the Shannon Airport Social Club, Foynes, G. Granville beat T. Scannell, N.T., and D. Matthews beat D. Keane. The two games were keenly contested, and were productive of high-class billiards.

JUNIOR HURLING AT ABBEYFEALE

Abbeyfeale and Ballaugh junior hurlers met at Abbeyfeale Sports field on Sunday. There were some lively exchanges and Abbeyfeale won by 3 goals 6 points to 2 goals 4 points. Mr. Ed. C. Leahy refereed.

A fortnight's mission, which is being conducted by Rev. Father Coogan and Rev. Father Hanley of the Redemptorist Order, Limerick opened at Kilmallock on last Sunday.