

Office, 14 1/2 points; Tranport, 10 points; Mill, 5 points.

The replica of the Rank Cup for competitor scoring highest number of points was won by S. Mathews, Head Office, with 8 points the runners-up being D. Fitzgerald, Maintenance, 5 1/2 points, and P. Mathews, Head Office 5 points.

OTHER EVENTS.

Boys under 7—1st, Freddy Brommell; 2nd, Bryan Cross; 3rd, Michl. Earls.

Boys 7 to 12—1st, Stephen O'Brien; 2nd, James Watts; 3rd, Noel Carey.

Girls under 12—1st, Lillian Dixon; 2nd, Betty Watts; 3rd, Dolores Keane.

Ladies' 100 Yards—1st, Miss E. Smyth; 2nd, Miss K. Stewart; 3rd, Miss M. Copus.

Ladies' Relay—1st, Head Office; 2nd, Mill.

220 Yards (open to all employees in Defence Services) — 1st, T. Burke, L.D.F.; 2nd, G. Lvsaght, A.F.S.; 3rd, T. Quinn, A.F.S.

Veterans (over 50)—1st, W. Stockill; 2nd, M. Gabbett; 3rd, J. Healy.

Obstacle Race—1st, T. Burke; 2nd, D. Kearney; 3rd, M. O'Brien.

Tug o' War—Maintenance team.

ABBEYFEALE RETREAT

On Sunday afternoon, at Abbeyfeale (writes our correspondent there), Rev. Father Mangan, C.S.S.R., closed the women's Retreat, when a large congregation filled St. Mary's, after a week's record attendance at the morning Masses and evening services. Almost the entire congregation received Holy Communion at the early Masses. The Retreat closed successfully with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, the renewal of Baptismal Vows, and the imparting of the Papal Blessing. Rev. Father Kelly, C.S.S.R.; Very Rev. T. Canon Hogan, P.P., V.F., and Rev. J. Houllhan, also assisted. At night the men's Retreat opened with a most impressive sermon by Father Kelly, and for a congregation fully representative of the town and parish.

THE CITY MUSEUM

Public spirited citizens continue to make presentations to the City Museum, Pery Square, which is now one of the finest repositories of its kind in Ireland and Great Britain. Last month the following gifts were received by the Curator, Mr. Herbert:—Medal of League of the Cross, Limerick, 1884 (presented by Mr. John Reddan, 23 O'Curry Place); 19th century sugar breaker (presented by Mr. O'Mara, Knockainey, Co. Limerick); 18th century London-made candle shade (presented by Mr. John Hunt, Holycross, Co. Limerick); Ulster's Solemn League and Covenant (framed) declaration of aims and invitation to attend to Colonel O'Callaghan Westropp (presented by Rev. M. Moloney, P.P., St. Patrick's).

AT LONG LAST

At long last, the foot-bridge spanning the mill race at Corbally has been repaired by the Corporation. This span will prove a great amenity to the general public, as it will facilitate those who love to stroll along the banks of the Shannon skirting Gabbet's Grove, one of the most picturesque parts of the river.

The supporting feature, "Miss Polly," is a comedy with Zazu Pitts, Slim Summerville, Kathleen Howard, Brenda Forbes, Elyse Knox and Dick Clayton.

OBITUARY

MR. P. NORMOYLE, GLIN.

The death, which took place on the 5th inst., at his residence, The Mall, Glin, of Mr. Patrick Normoyle, removed from the district a member of an old and respected Glin family. Deceased, a member of the old Glin district Council, was a man whose many sterling qualities endeared him not only to his own family but also to a large circle of friends. His funeral on Sunday, 6th inst., to the family burial ground at Klfergus, was large and representative, and bore ample testimony of the esteem in which deceased was held not only in his native but surrounding parishes.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Johanna Normoyle, and Bridie Normoyle (daughter), James Normoyle, N.T., Cappagh National Schools, and John Normoyle, auditor, Irish Assurance Co., Ltd., Limerick (sons), to whom deepest sympathy is extended. Amongst relatives present at the funeral were:—Mr. John Normoyle (brother), Mrs. Josie Normoyle, Mrs. Margaret Normoyle, Mrs. Mary Donovan (sisters-in-law), Glin, and Dr. O'Connor, Glin; Mr. John Culhane, draper, Glin (brothers-in-law) and families.

It would be impossible to give a complete list of relatives.

Rev. Father Carroll, P.P., and Rev. Father McCarthy, C.C., Glin, officiated at the parish church, and also at the graveside.

Mrs. Normoyle and family wish to return thanks to all those who sympathised with them by letters, wires and Mass cards.

MRS. KATHLEEN SHEEHY.

The lamented death of Mrs. Kathleen Sheehy, Bridge House, Ballingarry, Co. Limerick, a highly esteemed lady, took place at an early hour on Sunday morning, June 13th. Nature generously endowed her with many gifts of mind and charm of manner. She was an exemplar of every Christian virtue, and her well spent and hard working life is a source of edification and example for all to copy.

Her activities were manifold—especially in the home, and her zeal and tireless work in Church matters were praiseworthy and meritorious.

Her many acts of kindness and charity to the deserving poor will evoke their prayers, which will be joined with the prayers of her host of friends all over West Limerick. The large concourse of people who escorted the remains to the church on Sunday evening, and the big attendance at the funeral on Monday, gave abundant evidence of the popularity and respect in which she was deservedly held. R.I.P.

TWO PLANES CRASH

Two British planes crashed on Monday, one at Cromer, exploding as it crashed, and burst into flames. Its crew of two were killed, the parachute of one catching in the falling machine. The other spun to earth with one wing apparently "cut clean off." It caught fire after falling into a cemetery at Finchley, London, and the pilot was killed instantly.

one girl. Out of this large family there are only three now living. All the thirteen members of the family were all musicians, and figured prominently in almost every band in our native city. I would like to add a little with reference to Mr. Patrick O'Brien, who was bandmaster of the Sarsfield Fife and Drum Band for a considerable time but who was also a great Irish step-dancer. He won many coveted prizes at dancing the jig, reel and hornpipe at the Killarney Feis.

But all now are gone to their glory with the exception of three brothers. They are Thomas O'Brien, sawyer, of 19 Prospect Villas, at present a patient in St. John's Hospital, who is an excellent cornet player; Mr. Gus O'Brien, bandmaster of the Technical Institute Ceilidhe Band, who has on more than one occasion brought music laurels to Limerick; and Mr. John O'Brien, of 14 Prospect Hill, who had to retire from his musical career owing to the position he holds, but who is still considered as being a great authority on musical matters and played a cornet in the Boherbuoy Band at an early age.

A sister of the late Tom O'Brien is still alive. She is now living at the new Prospect houses. She is Mrs. Sciascia. Her maiden name was Eily O'Brien. She also is highly esteemed by all citizens.

"OLD GAEL."

CASTLETROY GOLF CLUB

There was a small entry for the Monaleen Cup on Sunday last. A number of the members were away for Whit and the bad weather kept others at home. The cup was won by A. M. Killeen (16), with 68 nett, an excellent score under the conditions. P. J. O'Donnell beat G. Collins for second place on the second nine holes. The fourball in the evening was won by N. Quilligan and J. Geary with 6 up. R. Purcell and J. G. O'Donnell were second with 4 up.

The Scotch foursome on Monday was won appropriately enough by our Scots member, A. R. Gibson and his partner, J. Gleazer, with 4 up. S. Kelly and R. Slattery were second with 2 up.

The Quin Cup was won by J. O'Dowd, who had an easy victory over S. Kelly in the final. Joe also figured in the prize list at Galway during the Whit week-end.

The third round of the Tirconnell Cup has been completed and produced some "marathon" matches. J. Kennedy and T. E. O'Donnell went to 26 holes before the former won, and several matches had to play the extra four holes demanded by the Club's rules in the event of a tie. The fourth round must be completed on or before Thursday, 24th inst.

On Sunday next the Open Mixed Foursomes competition for the Irwin Cup will be held. Entries from 11 a.m.

LADIES' BRANCH.

Mrs. Dillon's Prize—Won by Miss M. Godfrey, 19 (71).

The City Library book stock continues to expand. At the beginning of June the stock consisted of 19,565 volumes. During May 10,729 works of fiction and 3,632 non-fiction books were issued to borrowers. Juvenile borrowers numbered 1,703. The average daily issue was 656.

Renewal of over Railing Closing of R

Notice is hereby given that the above Council the Minister and Public under Section Government Road from B Period for closed—From 23rd, inclusive

ALTERN Road cross 1 1/2 miles North of the Ma Road at How The Minister and Public objections from sons interest 14th June, 19 L. O'DONNE County Council 82/83 O'Conn 5th June, 19

LIMERICK

Application agricultural tenancies of No. Town 31 Kilmalloe 37 Do. 51 Fanning 11/C260 Fort Application J. J. King, Newcastle W not later than June, 1943. P.

Public Health Newcastle W 12/6/43.

LIMERICK

Application position of Trained Nurse, Crook possess C.M. £65 by £5 together with fuel, light a age, 21 years Application birth certificates reach Mr. J. ance Offices later than T P. J. M Public Assis Newcastle V 16/6/43.

NOTICE

Wanted by Creamery, to

Plans an seen at the

GEORGE Arthur's Q

Manufacturers Baths, Dust corrugated iron Or would purchase LARGE STOCK AT KEEN

FOR Mass C Acknowledgm Limerick Lea