Comments.

It was a great honour for the G.A. to get a special invitation to Rome by the Count on the occasion of this Jubilee. What a pleasure to be able to quote that one of our martyred patriots, Eamon de Valera, of 1916, took a part in the celebrations before the Sovereign Pontiff. The references to Matt Grath's performances remind us of "Matt The Thresher" in "Knocknagrow," "for the sake of the little page." We had a great day with Matt on the side of his Tipperary when on his last visit home.

Suggested Team.

The views of several correspondents, clerical and lay, as to the Limerick hurling team to meet Waterford, are embodied in the following suggested placed selection:

Dr. Jim McCarthy
Hickey Cregan
Jno. Mackey Kelly
Sean Herbert Tim Ryan,
Herbert or O'Shea Fitzgerald
Mack Mackey J. Power Stokes
P. McMahon
Shawke, Roger Hayes, Tom Cregan, Larkin, Guiry (Rath-le), Tobin (Kilfinane), Kiely
(Galie), etc., can be called on.

Warming Up.

This engagement with Waterford requires the best fifteen hurlers in our county, and the best could be fielded quite independent of club or side of the county. Let there be no partiality in the latter two directions favour any player from north, south, west or east. Field the best and win the game. That young Conway is a find, like Fitzgerald (Askeaton) last year. Mick Mackey can switch with Jacky Power when they feel like it and Power with John Mackey. They are club mates (Ahane) and understand each other thoroughly. I have seen some able switching in our county teams those few years with good results. Stokes is the star-turn in the Dublin games for U.C.D. in centre-field. We cannot spare him well off the wing, and Tim Ryan with other partners can well hold up the centre.

Waterford.

With reference to Waterford, that veteran, Jim Ware, is holding up a great goal. John Keane, very quick centre-half, is at his best. Barron shone out against Tipperary. Brilliant individual play depends occasionally on weak opposition, taking from Barron's repute. The Suiriders are pretty confident. The Shannonsiders should have similar optimism as in 1940 Clonmel.

Food For Thought.

DEATH OF MR. DAVID WALSH

A special meeting of the Committee of the Mitchelstown Co-operative Agricultural Society, Ltd., passed the following resolution:—

"That we place on record our deep sorrow on the death of our Society's Manager, Mr. David Walsh, and express our great sympathy with his widow and relatives in their bereavement. We owe mainly to the untiring energy, keen business ability, honesty, integrity and unfailing courtesy of the late Mr. Walsh, the great success and prosperity achieved by our Society. His death has been a loss not only to the Society, which he so ably managed, but to thousands of people in the Mitchelstown district, who have for a number of years benefited by his work, advice and generosity.

The chairman, members of the Committee, Mr. E. Roche, Manager of the Creameries, and Mr. P. Courtney, I.A.O.S., paid very high tributes to the late Mr. Walsh. They recalled the difficult and exacting work put in by him for years in starting and subsequently building up the Society's business, the thought and energy he displayed in extending the premises, and particularly the new corn stores, his unfailing courtesy and good humour to all his customers, and his cheerfulness in time of difficulties. They referred to the extraordinary popularity of Mr. Walsh, which was so well exemplified by the thousands who followed his remains from his residence to the church on Wednesday last, and at the Requiem Mass and subsequent interment in the new cemetery on the following day. A man of noble character, great Christian charity, love of his neighbours, and a desire to serve and help all, especially the poor, characterised Mr. Walsh's life. May he receive the great reward which a man like him so richly deserves. R.I.P. (—)
