APPOINTED TO CREWE

Rev. J. T. Dore, O.M.I., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dore, Shanagolden, Co. Limerick, has been appointed to the Oblate House at Crewe, England. He was ordained last year at Our Lady's Scholasticate, Piltown, Co. Kilkenny. He is a brother of Sister Mary of the Immaculate Conception, Good Shepherd Convent, Limerick, and of Sister Leo, Presentation Convent, Listowel. Father Dore, during his student days, was a prominent footballer and a member of the Foynes team which won the West Limerick Senior Football Championship a few years ago. He left for Crewe during the week.

COMMISSIONED AS CAPTAIN

Dr. Owen Byrnes, Glebe House, Bruree, son of the late Dr. J. P. Byrnes, has been given the rank of Captain in the second line Medical Service, which will operate in the event of a major emergency.

Dr. Byrnes studied at the Royal College of Surgeons and Physicians and after being qualified in 1941 was appointed House Surgeon and Physician to the Richmond, Whitworth, and Hardwick Hospitals, Dublin.

He is a brother of Surgeon C. K. Byrnes, Fitzwilliam Street, Dublin, and Dr. James Byrnes, A.M.S.

IRELAND'S TALLEST GOAL-KEEPER

One of the tallest men in South Leinster is dead. He was Mr. Martin Whelan, Marshalstown, Co. Wexford, and his height was well over 7 feet. Forty years ago he was a familiar figure in Wexford football, where, as the tallest goal-keeper in Ireland, he could save both goal and point shots.

MAN ELECTROCUTED

A verdict of accidental death was returned at the inquest in Belfast yesterday on William Lemon, Mersey Street, who was fatally injured when he touched a live wire near an electric meter box.

A strong challenge was issued by "Father of Seven," In whose note to the "Leader" some sharp raps were given.

Now, 'tis clear "Manners First" wrote in vein quite sarcastic— He would give selfish cyclists a punishment drastic— So 'tis hoped that the pramists that writer will thank, Thus concluding one war—that of Barrington's Bank. Aug., 1943. W.S.B.

FOYNES PARISH HALL

At the weekly meeting of the Foynes Development Association, Rev. M. J. Quinlan, C.C., presiding, a long discussion took place on the proposed extension of St. Senan's Parish Hall. It has always been the intention of the committee to provide a suitable Hall, with proper club amenities. With £600 in funds, it has been decided to go ahead with the extension. The new portion will be added on to the front of the present building and will consist of two storeys, comprising billiards room, card rooms, and reading room. Mr. P. J. Culhane, the secretary, was instructed to get in touch with a number of contractors and obtain estimates for the proposed work.

ATHEA MAN'S DEATH

We regret to record the death of Mr. Daniel O'Connor, of Lower Athea, who died after a comparatively brief illness in Croom Hospital during the week-end. The deceased, who belonged to a most respectable family, was very popular among the farming community of the district. To his widow and family the sincere sympathy of the public is extended in their sad bereavement.
