

For the time being no street lamps are to be put down, but, according to the official, with the restoration of normal conditions this is a matter that will be attended to without undue delay.

CLERICAL APPOINTMENT

Rev. A. Shinnors, third son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shinnors, Grange, Kilmallock, who was ordained to the priesthood in Maynooth College last June (writes our Hospital correspondent) has during the week taken up his first appointment as curate in Parteen. Another member of the family, George, has also finished his scholastic career, and is now a qualified Veterinary Surgeon. He is at present practising in his own district prior to taking up an appointment in Mitchelstown.

BULL INSPECTIONS

At Kilmallock ten bulls were presented for inspection, out of which four passed. At Bruree seven were presented and four passed. Eight bulls were presented at Kilfinane on Monday last. Of these four were rejected and four passed. At Feenagh four were passed out of eight, and at Kilmeedy four out of six were passed.

DAMAGES FOR FARMER

A decree for £6 and costs, with 40/6 witnesses' expenses, was given by District Justice Reddan at Balbriggan in favour of James J. Murphy, farmer, Walshestown, Lusk, who sued the Dublin County Council for damages to his motor lorry tyres, caused by negligence in repairing the road at Tobeen, Naul.

MOTHER'S TRAGIC DEATH

Bringing her 11-year-old son home from a holiday at Kingscourt on the carrier of her bicycle, with a bag of clothes on the handle-bars, Mrs. Ellen Thornton, Nobber, Co. Meath, mother of 13 children, fell from the machine and fractured her skull. She later died in the County Hospital, An Uaimh.

IRISH HORSES "STAR"

Sixteen Irish horses have gone to London to take part in the final scenes of "Henry V," the Two Cities Film which is nearing completion.

suggest that all pedestrians should forsake the bank as this would also deprive cyclists of their "game" and might cause them to put manners first.—Yours faithfully,
"WHEELEMIN."

LIMERICK MAN'S DEATH IN ENGLAND

Deep regret is felt in the Hospital district at the news of the death of Mr. Joseph Mitchell, which took place in England (writes our Hospital correspondent). Deceased was a son of the late Mr. Michael Mitchell, V.S., Kilmallock, and a nephew of Mr. E. J. Mitchell, auctioneer, Hospital, with whom he spent most of his early years of manhood. Beneath his debonair manner and gay spirits, there lay a character of quiet determination and deep sincerity. There were few who enjoyed such popularity as he did, and his early demise evoked the passing tribute of many a sigh of sorrow from his numerous friends who thought with remembrance of his high spirits and fine personality. R.I.P.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT AT HOSPITAL

The members of the Hospital Lawn Tennis Club visited Kilmallock on Sunday last, where, in spite of a high wind and fairly heavy courts, an enjoyable afternoon's play resulted. The outstanding event of the day was the American Tournament for mixed doubles, which was won by Mr. E. Mitchell, Hospital, and Miss Rohan, Kilmallock, the runners-up being Mr. John Lyons, Kilmallock, and Miss Mary Kirby, Hospital. Both the winners and runners-up were presented with beautiful silver cups at the conclusion of the event.

TURF INVENTION

Patent for an invention which, he claims, enables turf to be burned with more success than coal in an anthracite cooker, and without smoke or smell, has been granted to Mr. William Hynes, restaurant proprietor, O'Connell St., Clonmel.

DAMAGE BY STORM

Heavy damage was caused in Rome when a violent storm swept the capital, and houses that became surrounded by floods collapsed, but there were no casualties.
