LIMERICK NUN'S DEATH

The Good Shepherd Order in Limerick has suffered a sad bereavement by the passing of Sister Mary Bridget O'Connell, who died on Monday. A native of Co. Cork, where her family are extensively connected, the deceased nun entered the community in Limerick twenty-eight years ago. During her long time in the Order she laboured zealously and painstakingly in the fulfilment of the duties of her sacred vocation, exemplifying in her general demeanour and cheerful acceptance of the arduous tasks of her life, the high ideal of self-sacrifice and devotion to the spiritual and temporal needs of others, for which the Order is noted.

Following Office and Requiem Mass in the Convent Chapel to-day, interment was made in the Convent Cemetery in the presence of the members of the community.

Rev. J. Houlihan, C.C., was celebrant; Rev. Father O'Regan, C.C., deacon; Rev. Father Godfrey, C.C., sub-deacon, and Rev. J. Brassill, Adm., St. John's, master of ceremonies. More than 20 other priests were present.

The chief mourners were—Messrs. P. O'Connell and J. O'Connell (nephews); Mrs. O'Shea (sister); Miss M. O'Shea (neice); Mrs. O'Connell (sister-in-law).

STRANGE, BUT TRUE

When certificates awarded by the Royal Humane Society were presented at a meeting of Dublin Corporation to five men who had rescued persons who fell into the Liffey, the Lord Mayor regretted that there was no Irish organisation to look after such cases.

THREE LARGE POTATOES

Three Arran Banner potatoes, weighting 6lbs. 3ozs., which were grown by Mr. Michael Cullity, Ballymac, have been on exhibition for the past week at the shop premises of Mr. T. N. Bluett, Newpark, Kilmallock.

TRANSFERRED TO FOYNES

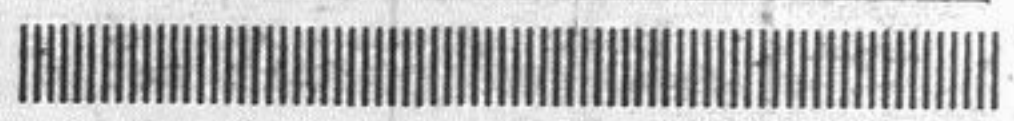

Guard Peter Shevlane, a native of Belmullet, Co. Mayo, has been transferred to Foynes. He previously served in the East of Ireland, and prior to his appointment at Foynes was stationed at Trim, Co. Meath.

JUVENILE SPORTS POSTPONED

The juvenile sports organised by Killaloe Group, L.D.F., for Sunday

...day, said that British and Canadian forces had maintained their progress on the Italian mainland. He added that the Allied forces had advanced on both the north and south coasts of the Calabrian Peninsula.

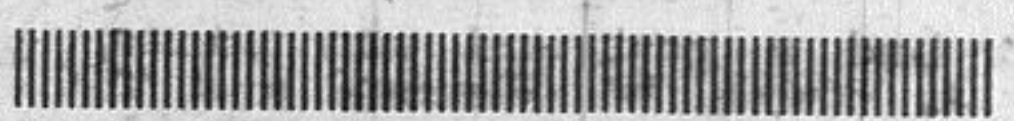

British and Russian aircraft have launched attacks on German shipping off the coast of Norway, according to the German News Agency, which went on to say that a formation of eight British torpedo-carrying aircraft attacked a German convoy off the Norwegian Coast yesterday. The News Agency added that three of the enemy's formation were shot down by German naval escort.

ITALY SURRENDERS?

It was broadcast over the American wireless system late this evening that the Italian Government had decided to capitulate unconditionally.

It was added that General Eisenhower, the Allied Commander in Chief had granted a military armistice to Italy.

A DEAR "WET"

Three members of the Army, who represented themselves as bona fide travellers in order to gain admittance to a publichouse in Castleconnell, were fined 7/6 each, by District Justice Flood at the Liberties Court to-day.

Sergeant Kenneally said that on the 30th June he visited the licensed premises of Daniel O'Shea, Castleconnell, and found a number of men there, three of whom were non-bona fide and who represented themselves as bona fide travellers.

Defendants did not appear in court.

THE MEETING

"Altho' we have sea-links," said X, "We never met before; I hail from scores of many wrecks, And you come from the shore."

"I often wondered how," said Y, "You braved the ocean-shocks; When savage storms are raging, I Cling closer to the rocks."

X is a whiting, in this rhyme, And Y is carrigeen; Their meeting, just at dinner-time, Has been by many seen.
