

... expectations, but when business led down useful and promising cows and ers were enquired for and sold readily at values, and for the choicer lots bidding brisk and quick; plenty of buyers for d heifers and cows, and a ready exchange slightly easier rates. Medium sized, ury heifers showing quality were readily for, and any lots where shapes featured e to type found a ready exchange; back-d heifers met a slower trade. All round le not as firm as last market. Top price a calved dairy cow was obtained by Mr. nelius Ryan, Cluggan, Oola, at £47, the chaser being Mrs. Hastings, Friarstown use, Limerick, and for incalf heifers, Mr.
McNamara, Ballycahane, Croom, topped market at £38 10s. A substantial volume business transacted, and a very good arance. Dairy cows, best, £41 10s. to £47; mising, £35 to £40; ordinary, £25 to £33; alf and calved heifers, best, £30 10s. to 10s.; ordinary, £27 10s. to £29 10s.—

CATTLE MARKETS, MULGRAVE STREET, LIMERICK.

Weekly Market, Saturday, Sept. 25.

Dairy cows and incalf heifers—Light entry, quality not up to last week's high level, good demand and clearance. Cows and heifers, best, £32 to £35 10s.; second run, £26 15s. to 30; others, £22 to £26. Stores—Entry mostly unprised young cattle of a useful description, which came in for good competition; almost complete clearance was effected. One and half year old bullocks, best, £17 7s. 6d. to 18; second run, £12 to £15 5s.; one and a half year old heifers, best, £16 15s. to £20 5s.; second run, £14 to £15 10s. Three choice yearling heifers made the high price of 16 12s. 6d. each. Fat pigs, £13 5s. to 17 10s.

It now transpires that at the sale at the cattle markets on the 11th September last, a calved cow the property of Mr. Hannan, Corbally, was sold for £48 10s., her calf was sold that morning for £7 5s., which, with the price of the cow, makes a total of £55 15s. This record, which is held so far by the Cattle Markets, will be hard to beat.— Louis de Courcy, Auctioneer.

FURNITURE AUCTION AT DROMOLAND CASTLE

On Thursday last Mr. Louis de Courcy, auctioneer, conducted a sale of furniture and some outside effects, farm implements, etc., at the Castle Yard, Dromoland, on the instructions of the Right Hon. Lord Inchiquin.
Although the sale only included surplus lots, buyers attended from Dublin and Cork, as well as Limerick and a good many parts of Clare. Bidding throughout the day was remarkably good, some very high prices being realised. The following were some of the transactions:—Mahogany canopy beds, £3 to £7 10s.; set of bedroom ware, £2 15s.; coal scuttles, £3 to £3 10s.; imitation chariot and stand, £1 6s.; oil paintings, £1 5s. to £5 each; brass stand, £2 12s. 6d.; marble groups and statues, 12/6 to £4 2s. 6d.; Frigidare, £3; six sliding shutters, £3 10s.; gramophone and records, £4; two inlaid coffee tables, £18; mahogany occasional table, £8; oak falling leaf table, £4 5s.; plate glass fire-screen, £4 5s.; settees and couches, £4 to £12 10s.; mahogany bureau, £9 10s.; easy chairs, £5 10s. to £17 each. Drawingroom and diningroom chairs sold particularly well.
Three mahogany Queen Anne style chairs, after remarkably keen bidding by Dublin and Cork bidders, were bought by a Clare purchaser for £22 10s. Among the outside effects sold, an Albion reaper and binder realised £95; while a hay seed sower made the remarkably good price of £7; and a push bench was sold for £16 10s.
