

...anned, eight of and suitable, and the these will be com-next few weeks. It o have typed copies those teachers who o break new ground ic sphere.

Dunadhaige, Inspector id he was sure that ased number of plays greater work would ng the coming year of Gaelic drama.

FINISHED COMING LECTURE

joint auspices of the mber of Commerce
Trades Council, Mr.
ished, of the League International Labour eliver a lecture on the Post-War Emer-Lecture Hall of the chnical Institute on October, at 8 o'clock ship the Mayor (Coun-uane, P.C.) will prerested are invited to

OF BANK OFFICIAL

avan, of the Charle-the Munster and k, has been transfer-ford, and is replaced ett, of Bantry (writes ille correspondent). riod he was stationed avan enjoyed the es-ularity of all classes, ture is much regret-district. He was a
the Local Defence

BONUS ORDERS

k Branch of the I.T. on has been notified ster for Industry and s made a bonus order k for luggage porters
Aer Lingus Teoranta
The order is retroom 20th August last.
rs of the same Union Messrs. J. & G. Boyd, ve been awarded a er week, retrospective uly last.

K CAPTURED

Gyles Quay (County men were herring fishesday night a 25-foot entangled in their ound round the body.
n the help of another brought their boat to inally beaching the had to be drawn to y a tractor.

EMPLOYED

52,535 persons regis-employment exchanges n, an increase of 741 with the previous umber registered at ing period last year

...another unfortunate one and he would give a decree for £20.

LIMERICK SINGER IN ENGLAND

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Sir,—At a recent musical function given by a section of the Irish residents here in Coventry, amongst those to contribute was Mr. Patrick Sheehan, of Limerick, who is now in Coventry. Mr. Sheehan was well known on the concert platform, and as a radio artiste. He sang some well known Irish airs, and it is no exaggeration to say that the remarkable sweetness of his tenor voice seemed to have caught his audience at once. His rendering of "The Last Rose of Summer" was the outstanding item of the evening, and was loudly applauded. His quality of voice was the topic of conversation by all those who heard him sing, and one heard nothing but praise and admiration for his rendering of Irish airs, where the real Irish quality of his voice was shown. Once again Mr. Sheehan has enhanced his reputation as a singer, and Limerick talent can still be in the front line even across the Channel.

P. O'SULLIVAN.

Coventry.

MARRIED IN ENGLAND

Dr. Dominick Cummins (Manchester), a native of Athenry, Co. Galway, was married to Miss Mary Hartnett, of Croom, Co. Limerick, at Camborne (Cornwall), Catholic Church on Saturday, October 2nd. The ceremony, with Nuptial Mass, was performed by Rev. Eugene O'Mahony, P.P. of Camborne, and a native of Kilbehenny, Co. Limerick. Miss Eileen Hartnett (sister of the bride) was bridesmaid, and Dr. Paddy Power, of Dublin, and now practising in Chester, was best man. The bride was for a short time employed on the nursing staff of the Miners and General Hospital, Redruth (Cornwall).

FOYNES WATER SCHEME

The news that Limerick County Council had authorised the raising of a loan of £12,000 in order to supply Foynes with a modern water system was received with satisfaction by the residents of the town (writes our Foynes correspondent). The old water system, put down over fifty years ago, is entirely inadequate to meet the demands of the increasing population, and it is hoped, despite the difficulties, that a start will be made on the new scheme without any unnecessary delay.

A GRATTAN RELIC.

A table used by Henry Grattan, and supposed to have been the Speaker's table in the Old House in College Green, was sold at a Dublin auction on Wednesday for £150. The purchaser was a North of Ireland man, who refused to give his name.

...room and there discussed everything that was worth discussing.
There was free speech for all, and these Fireside Chats often went on until the early hours of the morning. These Rural Weeks did a good deal to raise respect for the profession of agriculture. They put it on a social plane equal to that of any other profession.

To-day there are many "isms" being suggested as cures for our social evils. We believe there is only one cure and that is a return to real Christianity. Church-going is not in itself sufficient to make a Christian. Christianity is a way of life, and unless we accept it as such our Christianity is in vain. In Muintir na Tire we are making our Christianity alive in our own locality, fighting social evils at our own doors, reminding men of their duties as well as their rights, and creating in one's neighbourhood a spirit of harmony and co-operation.

DEATH OF PROMISING STUDENT

A promising student having highly respected family links with Limerick passed away on Wednesday night, 6th inst., in Castlebar Hospital, following an appendix operation. He was Norman Locke, elder son of Mr. Thomas C. and Mrs. Nancy Locke, Granville, Ballina, Co. Mayo. Not yet in his fourteenth year, he was studying in the Diocesan College, Ballina. His remains were removed to St.
Muredach's Cathedral, Ballina, on Thursday evening, 7th inst., and after Requiem High Mass at 11 o'clock next day the interment took place in Leigue Cemetery. His companions of the Diocesan College formed a guard of honour from the Cathedral to the Cemetery, and a beautiful wreath was placed on his grave from his sorrowing school companions.

All the clergy of the Cathedral attended the funeral, the Administrator, Very Rev. Father Moloney, officiating at the graveside.

The people of Ballina paid a great tribute to the esteem in which the family are held, all business premises being closed for the funeral.

Amongst the numerous messages of sympathy received was one from the Most Rev. Dr. Naughton, Bishop of Killala.

WHERE LIFEBOUYS ARE NEEDED.

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

A Chara—Permit me, through your influential journal, to bring to the notice of Limerick Borough Council the necessity of putting some lifebuoys on the Mall, also on Barrington's Hospital side of the river. The Corporation should follow the example of the Harbour Engineer. Our quays are well furnished with lifebuoys. The public should protect same.—Yours faithfully,

JOHN HORAN, Nicholas Street,
Limerick.