WEEKLY CATTLE AND SHEEP MARKET.

Wednesday, October 27th. Cattle—Numbers on sale considerably less than last market, ordinary description. Good average beef entry, which was in active demand, especially prime heifers; rates well up to current values. Young fresh heiferish cows are finding favour, and were readily cashed; older and secondary sorts met a dull trade. Some useful drafts of feeders in the store section, enquiry not as firm as last day. Promising young stores with condition met fair selling trade; backward and plain types tedious and hard to negotiate, also cattle short of condition. The opening sale of calves was held to-day and comprised a
