of Killeen-ber of the ected death

About a fortnight ago she returned to England after spending holidays with her parents in Killaloe. She was then in the best of health and spirits. Deceased was one of the most popular young ladies who ever left the town, and hosts of friends whole-heartedly sympathise with her grief-stricken parents and family in their bereavement. Rev. John O'Nial, C.S.S.R. (brother), was celebrant at Requiem Mass on Monday.

LATE MRS. M. PHELAN

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Phelan, wife of Mr. Michael J. Phelan, National Health Insurance Inspector, Limerick, took place from St. Nicholas' Church, Carrick-on-Suir, to Carrigbeg. The cortege was very large and representative. The deceased was daughter of the late Mr. Patrick Arrigan, Deerpark, Carrick-on-Suir, and sister of Mr. Michael Arrigan, teacher, Dungarvan. Among the chief mourners, in addition to the immediate family relatives and connections, were Mrs. MacEntee, wife of Mr. Sean MacEntee, Minister for Local Government, and Rev. M. Brown, C.C., Bray (cousins).

PARK OFFER TO ENNIS

Dr. M. Rynne, Kimmage Road, Terenure, Dublin (writes our Ennis correspondent), has offered Ennis Urban Council the free use of the major portion of a field, his property, for use as a public park or children's playground. He states that he always considered his native town (Ennis) was in need of such. Unfortunately, he could not give the field in perpetuity, but would give it for the remainder of his own life time and the prospect that whichever of his five sons inherited would do the same. He was 44 years of age and in good health.

The offer will be considered at the next monthly meeting of the Council.

HOUSING AND TOWN PLANNING

A meeting of the General Purposes Committee of Limerick Corporation will be held this (Friday) evening at 7.30 to discuss housing and town planning with Mr. M. J. Scott, B.E., Engineering Inspector of the Department of Local Government and Public Health, and Mr. Manning Robertson, Town Planning Consultant.

ABBEYFEALE RED CROSS DANCE

St. Ita's C.Y.M.S. Hall was filled to its limit on the occasion of its annual Red Cross dance on Sunday night. The treat was thoroughly enjoyed and the music of the O'Donovan band much appreciated by the dancers, who found the arrangements all that could be delashed, but as the case was not a serious one he would only impose a nominal fine of 5/-.

OFFER ACCEPTED

At Kilmallock Civil Bill Court, before Mr. H. L. Conner, D.J.,

Mary O'Donoghue, Ballinanima, sued Robert Clery, Ballingaddy, for £25, balance of wages alleged to be due.

Mr. R. Geary, solicitor, appeared for plaintiff, and Mr. R. Fox, solicitor, for defendant.

Plaintiff stated that she was employed by defendant from February 16th to Christmas Eve. She got on badly with Mrs. Clery from March 24th. She gave a month's notice, but it was not accepted. She left on the 19th April.

To Mr. Fox—She knew that Mr. Skinner, solicitor, wrote to Mr. Clery that she was willing to accept the amount due up to the time she left, and that Mr. Clery sent a cheque for that amount, which she refused.

Mr. Fox said that they were not admitting liability, but he would offer £10 in full discharge without costs.

The offer was accepted and the amount paid.

WIN FOR LIMERICK TEAM

At Croom this afternoon a team representing C.B.S., Limerick, met a team representing C.B.S., Charleville, in the first round of the Dr. Harty Cup for schools senior hurling.

The Limerick team won a good game by 6 goals to 1 goal 2 points for Charleville.

Mr. Jim Roche, Croom, capably refereed.

FROM SCARIFF TO NEW YORK!

Mr. Patrick Page, Ohilly, Woodford, now drawing on 80 years (writes our Killaloe correspondent), is one of the best known cattle dealers in Connacht and Munster. At all our local fairs his sons and himself are very popular. He attended the Bridgetown fair last week and is looking very well. At the early age of 14 years he commenced at the cattle trade. When queried about the approximate number of cattle he purchased during his long span of years, he is reported as saying:—"If put in single file they would reach from Scariff to New York."
