

WATER-GAS CHAIR

THE WORD USED

Banks will say that the word 'water-gas' was never used at all. What word was he using? Mr. Ryan—He says the word 'water-gas' was never used.

READ AT COMMITTEE MEETING

I did not know the letter, Mr. Ryan said. At a meeting of the Council on 27th October that letter was read by me for the information of the Council and the Council, but I kept custody of it.

WITNESS CROSS-EXAMINED

Cross-examined by Mr. Ryan (for the City Manager), Mr. Ryan said that the purpose of the deposition was to induce the people responsible to make gas.

EXPECTING COAL

What did he mean by that? That he was expecting coal. I think coal was at the railway at the time.

MORPHEUS

Irish Discovery

(BY 'GLEASHER')

"When you read this letter I will be in the arms of Morpheus. This was the last poetic way in which young James O'Shaughnessy signed his letters."

CORK EXPERIMENT

It was an Irishman, Dr. Fleming, a Professor in Cork, who first made an experiment on cork. The cork, which was used in the experiment, was a piece of cork from the cork oak tree.

SLEEPYNESS

There are, of course, times when sleep is a relief, in spite of all our efforts to keep it away. We will sleep undisturbed until loud noises, as is reported to have occurred at the battle of the Nile.

"SHUT YOUR MOUTH"

In a book published in 1871, Mr. George Catlin, then well known as a writer on the North American Indians, said that many modern diseases are due to the bad habit of sleeping with the mouth open.
