

T. Fitzgerald and family; Mary Fitzgerald, Creagh Street; Bill and Mary Fitzgerald; Tim and Margaret Casey; John O'Driscoll and family; all at Conway's Hotel; Michael Stack and family; E. J. Stack and family; the Culhane family, Main Street; Stephen and Mrs. Galvin; Guard Burke and family; Theo and Helen Curry; the Stack family, Cahara House; William Dillane and family; Maggie Moloney; James D. Hogan and family; the Finn family; J. McSweeney; Mrs. Healy and family; John Joe and Nellie O'Rourke; Denis O'Brien and family, Tinnakilla; Mrs. Joseph O'Carroll, Kiltteery; the Dalton family, Glenbawn; James and Mrs. Houlihan, Knocknaboula; John and Mrs. Houlihan, South Cappa; James and Annie McDonagh, Clino; Josephine and Peggy Slattery, Kildimo; Frank McCarthy, Foynes; Mrs. K. Woulfe, Abbeyfeale; Mrs. E. Callender; O'Shaughnessy family, Aughanish; Lyons family, Newbridge.

Telegrams and letters were received from:—Very Rev. P. Lyons, P.P., Monagay; Very Rev. J. Houlihan, P.P., Templeglantine; Michael O'Donnell, M.C.C.; Tom Barry, Castletownroche; Tom O'Shaughnessy, Dunboyne; M. Normile, Meenus; Dick Sheehy; John O'Donnell, solr., Tralee; Dr. M. O'Donnell; John O'Shaughnessy, Newcastle West; Patrick O'Shaughnessy, Labasheeda; David and family, Adare; Charles, Leo and Dan, Kilfinane; Colberts, Brannockstown; Ward family, Rathkeale; Patrick Liston, solr.; M. F. Noonan, solr.; M. J. K. Dore, solr.; R. Henderson, Secretary, N.H.I.; Donnchadh O'Briain, T.D.; P. O'Mealy & Co., Ltd.; J. P. Newsom & Co., Ltd.; R. & J. O'Dwyer & Co., Ltd.; Martin Bourke; P. Cullen, Phoenix Assurance Co.; John and Mrs. Liston, Castlemahon; John and Mary O'Sullivan, Ballyduff; Jimmie Collins, Abbeyfeale; Peter and Jim Crowley, Dublin; R. Fitzgerald, Ballynahill; Moya Fitzgerald, Croom; William O'Sullivan, Tournafulla; Dr. Roger O'Connor; David and Mrs. Meskell; Gearoid MacAuliffe; P. J. and Mrs. McCarthy, Athea; Madge Acton, Clifden; Alice Daly, Kilmeadon; Patrick Wallace, Ballyengland; W. Boyle, Rathkeale; Mrs. T. Leahy, Beenanaspug; Miss Wheeler, Portumna; Jim Clarke, Ballybunion; Frank Conroy, Salt-hill; Tom Bambury, Ballylongford; I. J. Moriarty, Portlaoighse; D. M. and Mrs. O'Connell, Ballyhennessy; Mick Bourke; Jim and Hetty Quinn; Bidy and John Harnett; Patrick Hayes, B.E.; Tom Treacy, B.A.; Callie O'Shaughnessy, Bettyville; Mary and Brian O'Donovan; John and Josie Downes; Bridie Culhane, Rathkeale; Helen O'Shaughnessy; Mrs. Rita McElligott; Mrs. Nora Griffin; Mrs. D. Blackwell; J. J. Airey; Gerard Clampett; Lois Beulah; Leo and Dodo Meer; Mary King, London; Murphys, Roscrea; Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Fennell, Limerick; Reidy family, Kilrush; M. Moran, C.E.O.; L. Mulcahy, C.E.O.; J. J. O'Carroll, R.Sc.O.; T. O'Fath-aigh; G. O'Haodha; T. de Villiers; D. Horgan; E. E. O'Connell; Staff, Shanagolden Technical School; Irene Ryan; Micheal O'Conchubhair; Miss O'Mahony; C. Cronin; Liam O'Higgins; B. M. O'Connor; P. J. Toomey; John and

Roger O'Sullivan, County Sancerre; Dan Colbert, Straffan; Edward Fitzgerald; Mrs. J. Hedges, Kildar-minster; Mrs. D. Hegarty, Foynes. Floral tributes were sent by—His loving children; the Knight of Glin and Madame Fitzgerald; the Misses Musgrave, Court.

THE LATE THOMAS P. O'SHAUGHNESSY.

Following in a fortnight on the lamented death of his father, the decease of Mr. Thomas P. O'Shaughnessy, on 2nd January, 1944, also after a short illness, caused a painful sensation in Glin which was succeeded by general sorrow and regret. He was the eldest son of the late Mr. Maurice J. O'Shaughnessy, and was of fine physique, like his father, whom he resembled. He was a favourite with his old school-fellows and companions, and there was poignant grief amongst them. But he was held in warm affection among the older people, too, for he was simple and straightforward, kind and considerate. He had only arrived home on holiday from London, where he held a responsible position with the L.M.S. Railway Company, the night his father was taken ill, and for the following week was, with his brothers and sisters, a constant attendant on him in the County Infirmary. This double bereavement of the O'Shaughnessy family, the loss of a father still in vigorous manhood, and of a brother not long arrived at it, both lovable personalities, is regarded in Glin as the saddest in this generation.

There was again a large gathering of relatives, friends and the general public at the interment, which took place on Monday, the 3rd January, when he was laid to rest with his father. Telegrams and letters of renewed sympathy to the bereaved family in their dual loss poured in from all parts as above set out, and Mass cards were sent by—His loving sisters and brothers; Aunt Catherine; Denis and Molly; Aunt Lil; Ita, Tom and Pat, Bailyanne; Colbert family, Newpark; Pat and Eileen, Jointer; Helen and Michael; his affectionate cousin, May, and his old teacher, whose favourite he was, David O'Leary; Peg and Jack, Kildimo; Margaret and Ned Coleman; Mac Colbert; L. O'Donnell; T. F. Broe; M. Larkin; Kathleen Dundon; Mary Scanlon; Jack and Annie Walsh, Mallow St.; Nora Ahern; J. M. Joyce; Jimmie Ryan; Pat Harnett; M. Stokes; P. Ryan; M. Deloughry; Kitty O'Neill; Bidy O'Regan; Maura Hayes; Susan Dillon; Rita Reidy; the O'Shaughnessy family, Aughanish; Theo and Helen Curry; Mrs. Dunne, Marv and Paddy; Patrick and Dollie Fitzgerald, Cahara; John and Annie Fitzgerald, Clonoughter; Stack family, Cahara House; Michael Stack and family; E. J. Stack and family; James D. Hogan and family; K. M. Guiney and family; the McElligott family, Foynes; Mrs. E. Healy and family; Guard Burke and family.

An appreciation of the late Maurice J. O'Shaughnessy, by a life-long friend, is unavoidably held over. It will appear in our next week-end issue.