DEATH OF MR. M. GEARY

We regret very much to announce the death of Mr. Michael Geary, who passed away on Tuesday at his residence, 3 Clontarf Place, Limerick. The deceased, who had been ailing for a considerable time back, was a native of Kilmeeedy district, and was for many years back attached to the boot department of Messrs. Todd & Co., Limerick. He was of a kindly, courteous and considerate disposition, and because of this and his invariably good-humoured nature and many other admirable characteristics, he was exceedingly popular with all classes. In his business capacity and in private life he enjoyed, as he richly deserved, the fullest confidence and respect of all who knew him—and his friends and acquaintances were legion. To his bereaved wife and family and the other sorrowing relatives we extend our sincere sympathy. The remains were removed to St. Michael's Church on Wednesday evening and the funeral took place yesterday (Thursday) to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, the attendances on both occasions being very large and representative.

"BUSINESS AS USUAL"

This is the time of the year which, previous to the war, brought to our homes those colourful seed catalogues, bright as spring itself, with all the gloriously coloured promise of the loveliness of gardens in summer time. Paper shortage and declining supplies cut away many of these gifts, but we are pleased to find that Messrs.
Power & Sons, Waterford, are still holding to the old custom, and are now issuing their 1944 list, complete as ever and in itself a highly artistic example of the printer's craft. To those who find happiness in gardening, this catalogue will prove an ever-handly encyclopaedia, the use of which will help to speed many a pleasant hour in these drab times.
