thers' Schools, John's Street, pre- sented another enjoyable comedy, "An Udhacht." These young actors thoroughly understood the subtlet- ies of the various situations and innuendos and gave a grand per- formance.

Next on the programme was "Cuaird ar Chathair," presented by the pupils from the Christian Bro- thers' Schools, St. Munchin's. This was a rather unusual type of play in which all the characters, except one, were dressed as mice. The costumes — complete with tails — were very realistic and the audience heartily enjoyed and applauded both mice and tinker.

Lastly, pupils from the Christian Brothers' Schools, St. Mary's, brought this year's Festival to a worthy conclusion by their presen- tation of "Paidin agus Co." This was another original drama, writ- ten for the class by the Brother in charge. A fine plot, clear diction and many witty sayings, plus the fine acting of the principals, com- bined to make an excellent enter- tainment.

SERVICES PARADE IN ABBEYFEALE

The Abbeyfeale L.D.F., V.A.D. Nurses and Red Cross Units, in full parade equipment, marched from St. Ita's Hall through the Main Street to the Parish Church for 12 o'clock Mass on St. Patrick's Day. The sermon, in Gaelic, on the National Apostle was preached by the Rev. J. Liston, C.C. Benedic- tion of the Most Blessed Sacrament was afterwards imparted by the Rev. J. Halpin, C.C. The choir hymns ended with 'Faith of Our Fathers.' A substantial collection towards the language was made.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Murphy—The relatives of the late Miss Patricia Murphy, 3 Swanson Terrace, Limerick, return thanks to all who sent Mass cards, tele- grams and letters of sympathy in their recent sad bereavement. Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. (m20p)
