OBITUARY

MR. THOMAS STOAT

It is with feelings of deep regret that we chronicle the sad passing away in Dublin of Mr. Thomas Stoat. The deceased, who occupied a responsible position in the firm of Messrs The Irish American Oil Co., was domiciled in Limerick just a few years ago prior to the transfer of the local clerical staff to the capital. While in Limerick he was held in the highest esteem and regard, not only in the business life of the city but in sporting spheres as well. He took a keen interest in association football affairs and was the Limerick representative on the Football Association of Ireland Council. His popularity amongst officials of the latter also won for him the respect and confidence of a large circle of friends. Of an affable disposition, his demise will be mourned by his numerous friends throughout the city. To his bereaved widow and relatives we tender our deepest sympathy.

The funeral, which was largely and representatively attended, took place to Glasnevin Cemetery following Requiem Mass in the Church of Corpus Christi, Glasnevin, celebrated by Rev. F. Morris, S.M. (cousin). Rev. R. Quigley (Corpus Christi), Rev. J. Grimes, S.M., and Rev. F. Byrne, S.M., officiated in the mortuary chapel and at the graveside.

Chief mourners—Mrs. M. Stoat (widow); Mairi and Leoni (daughters); J. Dynan (father-in-law); Mrs. Gallagher (sister); W. Stoat (brother); Mrs. W. Stoat and Eileen Dynan (sisters-in-law); Messrs. P. Fitzpatrick and P. Gallagher (brothers-in-law); T. and W. Gallagher (nephews); Maureen Gallagher (niece).

The attendance included the leading officials of the various football organisations and the senior clubs.

The Irish American Oil Co. was represented by Messrs. J. Quinlan (manager), W. Conway, D. Hogan, J. Cusack, B. McGoldrick, R. Jackson, C. Yates, J. Ivers, J. Attridge, W. MacArthur, K. Kennedy, L. Downes, R. McMahon and P. Caffrey. Also present: Comdt. P. and Mrs. Swan, etc., etc.
