

EGUARD THEIR ALTH

With this real body-building food

To safeguard the health of your little ones . . . build up their strength NOW with NEAVE'S. Containing special body-building ingredients, a cupful of NEAVE'S FOOD at breakfast-time and bed-time will not only make up for the war-time deficiency of essential, energy-giving foods, but will fortify them against infectious diseases and other juvenile ailments. To keep them nourished . . . to keep them healthy, start giving them NEAVE'S FOOD today!

LD EVERYWHERE
TONS 7½^D. TINS 1/10

Neave's Food

GROWING CHILDREN

Beauty's real Secret is

(16 ft. 8 ins.), 2
100 Yards (under 14 years)—W. O'Hea-Cussen, G.P.S., 1; P. Hartman, C.C., 2; D. Harris, C.C., 3.
220 Yards (under 16 years)—J. O'Hea-Cussen, G.P.S., 1; J. O'Callaghan, G.P.S., 2; D. White, C.C., and G. McBride, C.C., dead heat, 3.
440 Yards (Intermediate)—G. MacNamee, S.M.C., 1; G. Hannan, S.M.C., 2; S. O'Dea, C.C., 3.
880 Yards (Senior)—B. Geary, S.M.C., 1; D. Daly, S.M.C., 2; W. Manning, S.M.C., 3.
Relay Race (Junior, 4 x 150 yds.)—St. Munchin's College, 1; Crescent College, 2.
Relay Race (Inter., 4 x 150 yds.)—St. Munchin's College, 1; Crescent College, 2.
Relay Race (Senior, 4 x 220 yds.)—St. Munchin's College, 1; Crescent College, 2.

OBITUARY

—oo—

MRS. M. O'NEILL, KILDYSART

We regret to have to announce the death of Mrs. Mary O'Neill, Kildysart, which took place at her residence on May 23rd, after a brief illness. The remains were removed to the Kildysart Parish Church next evening and the funeral took place to the family burial ground, Kildysart, on the following day.

The chief mourners were:—John and Dan (sons), Mrs. A. Conway, Mrs. P. J. O'Connor, Annie and Katherine (daughters), Frank Geary (brother), Annie (sister), Mrs. Geary (sister-in-law), Mary Geary, Mrs. R. O'Brolchain (nieces), Francis, Mary and Desmond Conway and Tom O'Connor (grandchildren), Alec. Conway and P. J. O'Connor (sons-in-law).

The prayers at the graveside were recited by the Rev. Father Geary, O.S.A., Dublin (nephew of the deceased), assisted by the Very Rev. Father Grace, P.P., Kildysart; Rev. Father Hassett, C.C.; Very Rev. Father McHugh, Maynooth Mission, Cahircion; Very Rev. Father O'Flynn, O.S.A., Prior; Rev. Father Hand, O.S.A.; Rev. Father Ormond, O.S.A., Limerick.

THE TOWNHALL

GALA MID-SUMMER
CINDERELLA

Will be held
On SUNDAY, 18th JUNE.

MUSIC BY TOWN HALL
SERENADERS

(Specially Augmented).

Dancing, 9 to 2.

ADMISSION - - - 2/6.
Cycle Park. Mineral Bar.

THE COLISEUM—Bob comes to the Coliseum on next in "My Favourite Bl screamingly funny comedy and gangsters. Bob shares ventures with Madeleine C this laugh packed film, well-known radio comedian Berle, comes on Wednesday "Whispering Ghosts," an detective thriller, in which starred with pretty Brenda Hugh Sinclair and Jean G the stars of Friday's book "Saint Meets the Tiger," a filled picture boasting the quota of "Saint" thrills. port takes patrons back to "Covered Wagon Days" Three Mesquiteers.

THE THOMOND—Bing comes to the Thomond on next in "Dr. Rhythem." In ture Bing sings a number in his own inimitable style. cast includes Mary Carlis rice Lillie and Andy Divir glorious singing voice o Newill is only one of the highlights of the suppo "Bandits," also featuring Stanley. On Wednesday gramme changes to "Spring the Rockies," Fox's tec musical extravaganza, Betty Grable, John Payne, Miranda, Cesar Romero, Greenwood, and Harry Ja his orchestra. Friday's do ture, "Johnny Doughboy," a host of old and new star ing Jane Withers, Henry William Demerast, Bobb Baby Sandy, Alfalfa Switze McFarland, Butch and Bu Cora Sue Collins. The "That Other Woman," is a licking farce with Virginia and James Ellison.

THE LYRIC—Susanna singing star of "The Ph the Opera," comes to the all next week in her latest "Top Man." Young O'Connor, star of the rece success, "Mr. Big," appea title role. He plays the resourceful youngster who the head of the family aft accepts a navy commission is seen as Donald's girl f sings several numbers d musical sequences of t Richard Dix has the "fat opposite Lillian Gish. Th ing cast includes Anne Peggy Ryan, Noah B Samuel S. Hinds, Marcia M Count Basie and his Borrah Minevitch Ras Bobby Brook's Quartette.

THE ATHENAEUM—I worth and Fred Astaire co-stars in "You'll Never which has been booked Athenaeum management Monday next. Scintillat routines and lovely mel features of this grand arm the cast of which includ Benchley, Osa Massen