held at Mount Trenchard Military Post, Foynes, on Sunday, in aid of the Soldiers' Welfare Fund, provided many interesting and exciting bouts, and the programme was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd who made the visit to the open-air venue. It was a bumper programme, containing no less than fourteen bouts, but thanks to the first-class arrangements it was got through in the minimum of time, there being no delay between contests.

In connection with the organisation of the tournament a special word of praise is due to Lieutenant S. N. Fitzgerald, to whose efforts the success of the day was almost wholly due. Officials of the Limerick County Board, I.A.B.A., in charge of the judging, while Lieutenant J. O'Sullivan, 12th Battalion, was a most efficient M.C.

At the conclusion of the tournament, Comdt. D. O'Connell, O.C. of the Post, thanked the large gathering of spectators, the County Board officials, and the competitors for their support.

The two featherweight contests provided the best fights of the programme. Vol. M. Ryan, 12th Battalion, had a convincing, if somewhat surprising, win over Pte. E. Phillips, the Army champion, while Pte. M. Ryan, Munster junior champion, and Trooper J. Maher, Divisional champion, provided four rounds of exceptionally fast, clean hitting, the verdict going to Ryan. Other outstanding performers were Tpr. Meredith and Tpr. Deriven (light), Pte. P. Keane (fly) and Tpr. E. Mulligan (middle). Three of the fourteen bouts were won on knock-outs.

Featherweight—Vol. M. Ryan, 12th Inf. Bn. (Munster Senior Champion) beat Pte. E. Phillips, 3rd Inf. Bn. (Army Champion). Pte. M. Ryan, 7th Fd. Signal (Munster Junior Champion) beat Trooper J. Maher, 7th Motor Squadron (Divisional Champion).

Heavyweight—Tpr. P. McGrath, 7th Motor Sqn. (7th Brigade Champion, 1943) beat Cpl. P. Mulvihill, 12th Inf. Bn. (7th Brigade Champion).

Welterweight—Sergt. J. Sillery, 7th Motor Sqn. (Brigade Finalist, 1943) beat Pte. O. McCafferty, 7th Fd. Engineers. Pte. Dwyer, 15th Bn., beat Trooper Desmond, 13th Cyclist Sqn.

Bantamweight—Pte. P. Sweeney, 12th Batt. (7th Brigade champion) beat Tpr. M. Ling, 1st Motor Sqn. (1st Brigade champion).

Lightweight—Tpr. T. Deriven, 1st Motor Sqn. (Army Champion) k.o. Vol. T. Wrenn, 49th Batt. L.D.F. (Limerick Area Champion) 2nd round. Cpl. D. Mulrooney, 7th Motor Sqn. (Brigade Champion, 1943) k.o.
