FOYNES SPORTS

The 7th Motor Squadron Athletic Committee, in their own initiative way, has scheduled a sports programme for Sunday next which will attract a large patronage. With the announcement that huge entries have been received for all the events—particularly the "sprints"—the Sports Field should look a picturesque sight with its lavishing of champion athletes whose aspiring to this pinnacle of fame. An interesting feature of the meeting of Limerick's sprint champion, Jack Mulcahy, and Vincent O'Connor, the holder of the title; while J. J. Reid of Askeaton A.C., with the aid of the city, will be expected to make the short circuit on the programme (which is on the handicap system), the novelty races and the variety contest should add lustre to the day's entertainment; while the Army Brass Band, with its recitals, will further enhance the proceedings. The time of commencement is 3.15. At St. Senan's on the same night the sports dance will be held, with Brian Fogarty's band, donned in the uniform of the Maritime Inscription, to be seen from advertisement on one of this issue.

BRIGADE SPORTS

at the Non Airport, Rineanna, was a day of activity on Sunday last.

A voice is silenced by the tomb;
A noble face is hid in gloom.
Here lies in dust life's glory dead,
But from the ground there blossoms red;
Life that shall endless be.

—Sadly missed by his loving wife, sons and daughters. (8p)

Beauty's Basis lies within

The real basis of Beauty lies in your health. You cannot have a clear complexion or the vivacity that brings charm and fascination if poisonous wastes are clogging your bloodstreams. Nor can you hope to have the slender figure of youth.

That is why so many women are finding new beauty through Juno-Junipah. Juno-Junipah is one of the salts made specially for women and women's needs. First it is gentle salts. It clears away the poisons and wastes thoroughly but gently. Thus it wards off Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica and other acid troubles. Second, it is the only salts to contain pure oil of Juniper, the recognised specific for the Backache, Aching-Ankles and kind troubles to which women are so prone.
