It pays now because those Crean lines that are still available are not only the best of their kind, but also the best value. And it will pay doubly well in the future, for when peace returns the famous Crean brands will lead the field. Remember these names—Dromona, Ozene, Safeguard, Gladiator, Dirtshifter.

OBITUARY

MR. THOMAS GUINA

With very sincere regret we announce the death of Mr. Thomas Guina, which took place at his home in Parnell Street, Limerick, on Sunday last, at an advanced age. The late Mr. Guina was an esteemed and highly respected member of the community, a man whose gentle and pleasing disposition had won for him hosts of friends, and his passing has evoked widespread sorrow.

Deceased had a long and valued association with the Limerick G.P.O. He entered the service in 1881 and at the time of his retirement in 1928 held the appointment of inspector of postmen. Up to the time of his death he was a member of the bellringers attached to the Limerick Redemptorist Church, having joined the Tower in 1901, and was a most regular attendant to his duties during his 43 years as a bellringer.

It was with the Arch-Confraternity of the Holy Family, however, that deceased had his longest record of loyal and unbroken membership, having been an exemplary member of that great body of Catholic laymen.

Addressing the men of the Holy Family Confraternity in the Redemptorist Church at their weekly meetings this week, Rev. Father O'Connell, C.S.S.R., Spiritual Director, said that since their previous meeting they had lost an old and very faithful member in the person of Mr. Thomas Guina. Mr. Guina joined the Confraternity 65 years ago and had remained a loyal and zealous member up to the day of his death. He was for many years one of their bell-ringers in that Church and was always an active and faithful member of the Confraternity. He lived up to the rules of that body and had died an edifying death.

The Confraternity rosary was offered up for the repose of the soul of Mr. Guina, for whom Father O'Connell also offered up a prayer at the end of his remarks.

During his early years Tom Guina played a prominent part in the promotion of Gaelic games in Limerick. He was one of the founders of the Shamrock Club in 1885, and was instrumental in having the first big exhibition hurling match played in the city.

Deceased was father of Professor D. Guina, organist at the Dominican Church, and to him and the other members of this highly respected Limerick family we extend our deepest sympathy on the sad bereavement they have sustained.

On Sunday evening the remains were removed to St. Michael's Church and the funeral took place to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery on Tuesday evening. On both occasions there was an extremely large attendance of the general public, which was representative of all sections of the community, and testified in no small way to the esteem in which the late Mr. Guina was held by those who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

The clergy who officiated at the graveside were:—Father White, C.C., St. Michael's; Father O'Sullivan, C.C., do.; Father Lyons, C.C., do.; Father O'Donnell, C.C., do.; Father Saul, S.J.; Father O'Mahony, S.J.; Father Naughton, S.J.; Father Collins, O.P.; Father Stokes, O.P.; Father Taheny, O.P.; Father Van Noonan, O.P.; Father O'Connell, C.S.S.R.; Father Mangan, C.S.S.R., and Dom Finbar O'Mahony, O.S.B.

Chief mourners: Thomas, Michael, Patrick, Dominic, Sean and Jack (sons); Mrs. Ita McInerney (daughter); Misses M. and B. Guina (sisters); Mr. T. McInerney (son-in-law); Mrs. T. Guina, Mrs. Michael Guina, Mrs. P. Guina, Mrs. D. Guina, Mrs. D. Guina and Mrs. J. Guina (daughters-in-law).

MISS KATE RIORDAN

The death took place at her residence, 1 Mount Vincent View, Limerick, on Sunday last, after a long illness, of Miss Kate Riordan. A member of an old and highly respected Limerick family, she was daughter of the late Alderman Patrick Riordan, Mayor of Limerick in 1891, and a prominent figure in the Parnellite movement. Of a kindly and amiable disposition, deceased was held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of her

CITY CINEMAS

(By E.C.)

THE SAVOY—Millions of words have been written round the exploits of "Buffalo Bill," and there are few of us who have not thrilled to his exploits when we read them in the "tuppenny thrillers." Now at last the saga of this grand authentic adventure tale of the Wild West will be shown here on the screen. 20th Century-Fox have done a rip-roaring job of the picture version of Buffalo Bill's life and adventures in all the glamour and realism of technicolour and cast Joel McCrea in the title role with Maureen O'Hara and Linda Darnell in starring parts, and Thomas Mitchell, Edgar Buchanan and Anthony Quinn in support. This is the story of William F. Cody, better known to the world as "Buffalo Bill." It tells how and why he became a showman. After his unsuccessful fight against prospectors, Cody gets the job of showing off his crack shooting abilities in a fun fair. When the management of the shooting gallery calls for volunteers to hold a silver dollar between their fingers for Cody to shoot at, Louise (Maureen O'Hara), who had come back to find Bill, steps forward, and, standing there, says to her surprised husband: "Go on, shoot, Bill." His aim is accurate, and they are reconciled. The shooting gallery proprietor suggests getting a couple of Indians as an added attraction, but Cody says he wishes he could arrange a show of hundreds of Indians riding in full regalia. A friend arranges to finance such a show, and so "Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show" was born. The show travelled throughout the U.S.A. for 20 years and six times toured the Continent of Europe. The story ends with Cody making his final farewell appearance in the arena. His name and fame, however, have entered the world of legend as "Buffalo Bill." This big attraction will be shown all next week.

THE ATHENAEUM—The story of an embezzler, from the moment of his capture to his trial, well, that's the secret of "Rio," which opens at the Athenaeum on Monday next. Robert Cummings (who gave a memorable performance in "King's Row") heads the cast, which includes Sigrid Gurie and Basil Rathbone. There is a strange air of mystery in the unfolding of this super-charged drama. Also in the cast are Victor McLaglen and Leo Carrillo. In response to numerous requests, the management of this cinema have secured "Smiling Thru" for Thursday and the remainder of the week. Filmed in technicolour, this evergreen story tells of an immortal romance. The huge cast is headed by Brian Aherne, Ian Hunter, Jeanette MacDonald and Gene Raymond (Jeanette's husband in real life).

THE CARLTON—With a cast topped by Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Patric Knowles and Rosalind Russel, "Four's a Crowd," First National's swiftly-paced comedy romance, will be the attraction at the Carlton on Monday next. Walter Connolly, Melville Cooper, Hugh Herbert and Franklin Pangborn are also featured. In the filming of "Four's a Crowd," the objective of everyone concerned was to set a new all-time laugh record, and, in keeping with this laudable purpose, there is not a single moment in the picture which is intended to be taken seriously. Throughout the story are scattered scores of hilarious incidents, such as the race of the miniature railroad trains in which Errol resorts to trickery to ensure victory of his entry over grandpa's pet flyer. On Thursday the programme changes to "I Found Stella Parrish," an absorbing and dramatic story that every woman will want some man to see. The star is Kay Francis. The support "Land Beyond the Law," features Dick Foran.

THE GRAND CENTRAL—A new juvenile star is introduced in M.G.M.'s dramatic and moving tale of the turf, "Harrigan's Kid," which opens at the Grand Central on Monday next. He is Bobby Readick, sensation of the Broadway stage, who plays the title role in this

GAELS AND

(By "THOMO")

Ennis. This All-Ireland Series between Cork and Galway at Cusack Park, Ennis, on Saturday, 13th inst., will provide a great clash. Notwithstanding the great record of the Limerick Galwegians have made advances since going down last year. Their exhibition of the "pick" of Munster is commendable, and, indeed, against a Limerick team with some of their best players, it will be a close contest. Other Games.

On next Sunday there is a great County Championship in football Sarsfields in football, Sarsfields in football, Ballingarry the old men in hurling. In both cases some of the best teams in the county and both can attract great Gaelic games.

Correspondents. I must request my colleagues to drop sending me telegrams on the merits, demerits, etc., of Limerick's defeat at the Munster Final. I received a surfeit of letters from men all over the country on this subject, once and again, and certainly amazing that it held and led Cork to victory of the hour, and the under their sweeping closing stages. This result never happened in my memory.

Something Similar. Three pucks of a badger, a similar defeat by Cork on the last minute, ago. But our team was in play that day up to the final with the best of it until a surprising occurrence. A hurler, the late Jim Dungourney (R.I.P.), team mates, shouting field: "Drop your sticks, better team did not win." Finishing Plain Facts.

Even in Cork City Gaels there admit Mackey's advantage have been allowed. The turning point. Our team final with an improvement, especially "goalie" Mick Kennedy did not like the previous fortunates. What happened them? That question. Obviously we had Barry nor a Sean O'Casey player been switched, they held their lead no Ring or any other opposition. I am not going to personalities and these words I will write on the topic. Those few necessary to convey pleasure, but I cannot recommend to my Editor.

Galway. Latest news from the city is that they had a trial last Sunday at Portlaoise, second trial on Tuesday. These steps show that their work cut out for them to Croke Park. It will be a great clash on next Saturday.

From "Old Green Flag." I regret to announce that of Patrick Caulfield, Ballymallock, took a great interest in games and played football with Knights Hospitallers in Ballymallock.

At St. John's Park, on Sunday, Knockane and others met for the football. South Limerick and Knockane won by 1 after a great game.

At the same venue met Knocklong for the Hurling League. After an interesting match Knocklong won on the score of 4 goals to 5 goals 4 points for Knocklong, Kilfinane, Kilmallock by 1 goal.

South Limerick final will be played on Sunday, 27th August, against the Knights Hurling

It pays to remember
