THE PADDOCKS, LIMERICK. WEEKLY DAIRY MARKET.

Tuesday, August 8th—Smaller supply; no outstanding cows or heifers on sale; fewer buyers, owing to harvesting; useful dairy cows and heifers made full values; rates on current lines. Secondary and small lots a slower trade. Business not as active or firm as last week, because the stock on offer was not as good. A good clearance, representing a seasonable turn over. Dairy cows, promising, £30 to £32; in-calf and calved heifers, promising, £24 to £30; small, £21 to £23.—Wm. B. Fitt & Co., Auctioneers.

KILMALLOCK FAIR

Kilmallock fair on the 4th inst. was of large size; prices were up and there was an early clearance. Fat old cows sold particularly well. Prices—Three year old bullocks, £27 to £31; two years old, £20 to £25; yearlings, £11 to £15; springers, £25 to £35; yearling heifers, £17 to £22; fat cows, £12 to £20; bonhams, nine weeks, £4 10s. to £5 10s.;

first time the Pope had given private audience to a Church of England bishop, though there have been several occasions when Anglican ministers have been present at audiences. The Bishop was accompanied by his son. The audience, according to the Vatican News Service, is regarded in some quarters as of great importance, viewed in relation to "that current of English Protestantism which would favour union with the Catholic Church."

DEATH OF MR. J. COWHEY

The death took place suddenly last night of Mr. John Cowhey, Quin's Cottages, Prospect. He had only returned home after visiting friends in Thomondgate when he became seriously ill, and spiritual and medical aid were summoned. The deceased, who carried on a hair-dressing business in Lower Gerald Griffin Street, was a well-known and popular citizen. Up to the time of his death he was a member of St. Michael's Temperance Society, amongst the members of which he was extremely popular. Deep sympathy will be extended to his family in their bereavement.

heifers; small entry of beef cows; quiet trade; useful well done strong stores of the right stamp, especially bullocks, improved rates; heifers also came in for fair attention. In young stores choice one and a half year-old bullocks and heifers, and good second class met good trade, particularly bullocks which touched top rates; backward stores and plainer sorts hard to negotiate; seasonable enquiry. Volume of business well up to normal dimensions. A good clearance. Fat heifers and bullocks, £26 10s. to £30 10s.; second run, £22 15s. to £25 5s.; fat cows (old), £11 5s. to £18 10s.; two and a half year-old bullocks and heifers, £20 10s. to £24 5s.; second run, £13 to £17 10s.; one and a half year-old bullocks and heifers, £13 10s. to £18 5s.; second run, £8 15s. to £11 15s.

Sheep—Extra heavy supply; not as many good sheep; usual buyers; trade not as quick as last Wednesday, as the increased entries gave buyers an opportunity of going easy; heavy sheep not in favour; hoggets of medium weights in most demand; secondary and rough sorts tedious; fresh ewes sold fairly well; stores quiet; fat lambs a better trade; stores of the right stamp met a better enquiry. Over the day prices did not repeat last week's top rates. Business not quite as smooth and free. There was a substantial turn-over and a good clearance effected. Fat, middle weight, 109/- to 122/-; small, 85/- to 107/-; hoggets, 112/6 to 126/-; second run, 100/- to 110/-; small, 85/- to 95/-; ewes, 85/- to 101/-; lambs, 67/- to 84/-; second run, 45/- to 55/-.—Wm. B. Fitt & Co., Auctioneers.

CATTLE MARKETS, MULGRAVE STREET, LIMERICK. WEEKLY MARKET, SATURDAY, AUGUST 5th.

Dairy Cows and in-calf heifers—Entry showed an increase as compared with last week, and included promising heifers and cows; trade for these, although not as brisk as previous markets, was good; all the choice cows and heifers being sold. Top price for cows was obtained by Mr. P. O'Malley, Rivers, Castle-troy, at £32 10s. for a calved cow, the runner-up being Mr. T. Heffernan, Clonlara, at £30. Top price for heifers was obtained by Mr. B. Hanly, Rhufa, Ballysheedy, at £32 15s. for a calved heifer; Mr. T. F. Ryan, Clough-keating, being the runner-up in this department
