BRUFF FAIR

May wither and decay,
But my love for her who lies beneath Will never fade away.
In life I loved her dearly;
In death I do the same.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

DILLON—The husband and family of the late Jane Dillon, 7, Exchange Street, Limerick, desire to return their most profound thanks to all those kind people who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement. To the parish clergy, Augustinian Fathers and Sisters of Mercy who attended deceased during her protracted illness, as well as the many callers, those who attended the Requiem Mass and funeral, and to those who sent Mass cards and letters of sympathy they express their heartfelt gratitude. Lastly, to the Sacred Heart, whose sweet name she was privileged to invoke in her last moments. They look upon it as their greatest consolation.

FLANNERY—The widow, son and daughters of the late Patrick Flannery, Raheen, Mun-gret, desire to return sincere thanks to all who sympathised with them in their recent bereavement; to those who sent Mass cards, letters of sympathy and floral tributes; to the employees of the Limerick Gas Works for subscription for Masses, and to all those who attended the funeral. Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. (2p)

LYNCH—Mrs. M. Lynch, Barnakyle, Patrickswell, wishes to tender her sincere thanks to the many kind friends who sympathised with her on the recent death of her only child, and to all those who sent Mass cards, wreaths and messages of sympathy; also those who attended the funeral and called. Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment.

MOLONEY—Mrs. Moloney, her family and relatives, 13, St. John's Avenue, Limerick, wish to return their sincerest thanks to the many kind friends who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; also those who attended the funeral, sent Mass cards, telegrams and messages of sympathy. They trust all will accept this notice as a token of their gratitude. (2p)

O'SHEA—The parents, brothers and sister of the late James O'Shea (Jim), 5, Shelbourne Avenue, Limerick, wish to return sincere thanks to all those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; to all those who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters; to the many kind friends who called to express their sympathy, especially those who attended the funeral. Trusting this notice will be accepted by all as a token of their sincere gratitude.

RYAN—The widow, relatives and friends of the late John Ryan, 32, Wickham St., Limerick, wish to thank sincerely all who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; to those who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy, and to all who attended the funeral, trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. (f2p)
