

Criminal Court at Collins racks, Dublin, on Saturday, for trial of Charles Kerins, herine Street, Tralee, on the charge of murdering Detective-sergeant Denis O'Brien at Ballylen. Co. Dublin, on September 1, 1942.

ALWAY "NOT SATISFIED"

Mr. J. J. Nestor, Galway, said at meeting of the Central Council the G.A.A. on Saturday that Galway were not satisfied with the action of the Chairman, Mr. S.
 Ardiner, in connection with their objection to Cork being awarded the All-Ireland hurling semi-final to be played at Ennis.

FUNERAL OF MRS. M. KIELY

The following names were inadvertently omitted from the funeral of Mrs. Mollie Kiely:—Mr. and Mrs.
 John Malone, Mr. F. Williams, Mr.
 J. Hobbins, Mr. J. Bourke, Mr. P.
 J. O'Keefe, Mr. S. Clarke, Mr. Moloney, Thornhill.

ON THE AIR TO-NIGHT

Jack ("Billy") Cooke, a Limerick pianist, will be on the air to-night, playing "Bird Songs at Evening." He will figure on George J. Sweeney's half-hour programme at 9.20.

ment, experimental explorations are at present being carried out at the Glin coal mines. A number of men are engaged at this work, and it is stated that some very good quality coal has been met.

It will take some time before the geologist will be in a position to present a detailed report to the Department.

INQUEST ON SOLDIER

Death was caused by shock and haemorrhage of the brain, due to multiple fractures of the skull produced by three severe impacts on the back of the head, was stated by Dr. J. McGrath, State Pathologist, at the inquest at Dungarvan on Friday on Private Charles Daly, of Clara, Offaly, who died on Wednesday night. The inquest was adjourned indefinitely.

DEATH.

POWER—September 2, 1944, at her residence, "Adriyale," Kilmallock, Kathleen Pauline, beloved wife of John J. Power (State Solicitor), and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. McDermott, Castlereagh, Co. Roscommon.
 Deeply regretted by her sorrowing husband and relatives. May she rest in peace. Funeral took place to-day (Monday), after Office and Requiem Mass at SS. Peter and Paul's Church, to Ballingaddy Cemetery.

No Half-Price at Night.

This great Circus is well worth the long miles to see.
 Ireland's Largest, Greatest and Finest Amusement Institution.

Touch of To-Morrow in Cleaning of To-Day."

ORDERS RECEIVED MONDAY RETURNED SATURDAY.

uits - - - ostumes 6/6 overcoats

BURTOL
 Wash Cleaners, Ltd.,
 20, PATRICK ST.,

PHILOMENA CAMPBELL, MONICA KILLEEN,
 MARY ROCHE, MARGARET O'MAHONY,
 NANCY RYAN, TERESA O'NEILL,
 ITA GREENE, MARIE CAMPBELL,
 ANN MULHOLLAND, TERESA CONWAY,
 MARY LYONS, BETTY McNEICE,
 MARY O'CONNELL, RITA MEANEY.

Pupils are Prepared for the Intermediate Exams., Matriculation (N.U.I.).

FEEs MODERATE.

RE-OPENING DATE, 12th
 SEPTEMBER.

Mrs. M. Neary, B.A., H.DE.
 (HEADMISTRESS).

SPECIAL VALUES AT MACNAMARAS
 THIS WEEK.

White Calico, 32 ins., at 2/11 per yard.
 Blay Calico, 32 ins., at 2/4½ yard.
 Blay Sheeting, 54 ins., at 7/11 yard.
 White Sheeting, 54 ins., at 6/11 yard.
 Butter Muslin, 36 ins., at 1/4½ yard.
 Casement Cloth at 3/11 yard.
 Large Pillow Slips at 3/6 each.
 Embroidered Pillow Slips at 6/11 each.
 Large Bolster Slips at 6/11 each.
 Large Towels, 6/11 each.
 Linen Glass Cloths, 2/11 each.
 Linen Rollers, 4/11 each.
 Hook Towels, 2/11 each.

ELLISON'

THE HOUSE FOR Engagement and Wedding Rings, Watches, Clocks, Wedding Presents. Sports Prize
 Old Gold & Diamonds Bought

WATCHES, CLOCKS AND JEWELLERY REPAIRED

3, ROCHE'S STREET
 LIMERICK

NEW FURNITURE STORES

31, WICKHAM STREET
 & 39, PATRICK STREET

ALL CLASSES OF FURNITURE STOCKED.

CASH OR TERMS

RACES
 h Oct., 1944
 STAKES.
 Handicap
 J. O'KEEFE

D'

RANCE OF

IES

TS

iding

!

I. EAC

DISPLAY.

Ltd., Lime

