

MUNSTER FAIR.
 Limerick Fair at Limerick was well stocked, but dull. Prices, as compared a month ago, dropped to £2 per head, and vendors found it was a very fair and about 40 per cent of the cattle on offer resold. The only animals there was any inquiry for were three-year-olds and heifer beef, 55/- per cwt.

DANCE ATTRACTIONS

Limerick Rowing Club and Limerick Tennis Club have decided to hold what promises to be one of the best dances held in Limerick for some time. In order to give the dancing public in Limerick everything that they can take great pleasure in, Phil Murtagh and his Dance Band at their dance at the Bedford Rink (on Saturday) night. This dance is known as Ireland's No. 1. It has just concluded a successful season at the dance hall, Tramore, and will return next week to its winter home at the Metropole Ballroom. For further particulars see advertisement on front page of this issue.

Due to public demand St. John's Rowing Club Committee have decided to have Phil Murtagh and his Dance Band for a dance in St. John's Pavilion on Saturday night, 9-1. This will give those who are unable to attend Saturday's dance a chance of dancing to Ireland's No. 1 band. So don't forget to be there next, 9-1, at the price of 2/-. For further particulars see advertisement on front page of this issue.

"RADIO STARS"

The "Radio Stars" will conclude their fortnight's run at the Limerick next Sunday night. The dance is scheduled to start at 8.30, when the final of the "For Stars" competition will be presented. The prize money will be presented. The proceeds are very generously donated by the Irish Red Cross and the Boherbuoy Brass Band. An all new programme will be presented, and the programme will include the amazing Ramon and Ramona, Frank Gillespie, Ivy Dunphy and the Limerick crooner, June.

St. Theresa, pray for him. Masses offered.
 This is a day of sad remembrance; Sad and bitter to recall, When the one we loved was taken By a short and sudden call. The flower we loved and cherished, The Master took away, And placed in His heavenly garden To live and bloom for aye.

—Always remembered by his loving mammy, daddy, sister and brothers. (f30p)
