

AN CLAISCEADAL

Attention is drawn to an advertisement in this issue announcing the opening session of Claisceadal Ainmíche in the Technical Institute on to-morrow (Tuesday) night. The Claisceadal will be held every Tuesday from 8.15 to 9.15 p.m. Intending members should communicate with Aine De Burea, 8, Stiurthoir, Seoll Aine, Luimneach.

ANOTHER WEAPON

Germans have put a new eight-wheeled armoured reconnaissance car into operation, said the German News Agency yesterday. "It weighs 10 tons and has a long low streamlined body, streaking through the country like a panther," the report added. It is credited with high speed, and good manoeuvrability and is well armed.

LIMERICK RACES

A large entry is anticipated for the Limerick race meeting to be held on Thursday next. A large number of horses have been advised and a good day's sport is expected. The list of declared runners will be published on Wednesday evening.

DAVIS CENTENARY

Mallow Thomas Davis Memorial Committee have requested the Minister for Posts and Telegraphs to issue a special stamp in 1945 to commemorate the centenary of the poet's death.
