...connection with the discussion at Limerick Harbour Board meeting on Monday in regard to the public weigh lever at the docks and the attitude of the Market's Trustees, Mr. Martin McGuire, B.C., was reported as saying that "the legal position was that the trustees could only collect tolls on grain coming from areas within a mile of the city boundary." Mr. McGuire says his actual words were:—"The trustees could only collect tolls on grain purchased within areas one mile from the city boundary."
