DIRTY CITY STREETS

In a letter to the Editor a lady correspondent writes:—I had occasión to walk with a friend of mine to the station the other day.
Being a stranger to Limerick I was not familiar with the short cuts.
However, my friend was. My experience of the short cut will remain in my memory a long time—or, rather, my nose. In all my life I never saw such filth and dirt.
At the present time, when every precaution is taken to drive out dreaded diseases, I was shocked to think such dirt was allowed to lay about the streets. What are the Corporation doing that these things are allowed to happen?
