Jacobite wars began in 1795, an old soldier again took part, although then nearly distinguished himself by leading Colonel Odell to flight near Carrigrohane. He commanded a battalion of the city during the siege of Carrigrohane and was involved in the affair of Thomond in 1798, about 600 Irishmen, led by General Moore, were returning from a battle at Clare, hotly pursued by the French, when the French entered the city before the Irish could reach the city. Whether this was a coincidence, design, or crass error was never determined. The result was that nearly all the British soldiers were either killed or got into the city through the bridge. Pierced along with the rest, the true hero was a soldier and a peculiarly brave man for the last member of a family which had already achieved fame in Ireland and were now in an even more famous battle on the different battlefields

INSURANCE INSTITUTE, LIMERICK

At the October meeting of the Institute, Mr. P. Delaney, of The Irish Assurance Co., Dublin, read a paper on Industrial Life Assurance entitled "Stages of the Journey."

The paper was delivered to a representative gathering of Limerick Insurance officials, and was followed throughout with great interest.

Mr. Delaney dealt at length with the various Acts relating to the activities of the business from earliest times up to the present day.

A vote of thanks was passed on the motion of Mr. F. Cullen, who stated that the Centre was under a debt of gratitude to the speaker for the very lucid manner in which he dealt with the many aspects of the business.

Mr. J. C. Duggan, in seconding the vote of thanks, said that the paper had been greatly appreciated by the large number of Mr. Delaney's colleagues who attended to welcome him and by the members in general.

DEATH OF WEST LIMERICK ENGINEER

The death (writes our Newcastle West correspondent) occurred at the Limerick Co. Infirmary on Saturday morning of Mr. John Scanlan, engineer attached to the Co. Home, Newcastle West, where he had filled the position for a long number of years. Still in his early forties, deceased was only some 12 months married and he leaves a widow and young child to mourn his passing in the prime of manhood. The late Mr. Scanlan was eldest son of Mr. Timothy Scanlan, ex-Co.C., Direen, Athea, to whom, as well as the other members of the bereaved family, deep sympathy will be extended. There was a large and representative attendance at the funeral from Athea Church to Knockanure on Monday.

plaintiff did not constitute a breach of covenant on the part of the defendant and accordingly he would dismiss the action with costs.

Mr. T. K. Liston, S.C., with Mr. P. Roche, B.L. (instructed by Messrs. P. S. Connolly and Co., solrs.), appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. J. McMahon, B.L. (instructed by Mr. D. J. O'Malley, solr.), for the defendant.

CITY SCHOLARSHIPS

We have been asked by the City Manager to call attention to the advertisement which appears on page two of this issue inviting applications for the ten scholarships tenable at approved secondary and vocational schools offered for competition by the Corporation of Limerick this year.

As the Scholarships Scheme has been recently revised in accordance with the provisions of the Local Authorities (Education, Scholarships) Act, 1944, the City Manager directs attention to the following facts:—Scholarships, which are of the annual value of £15 each, are renewable for a period of five years, and are restricted to candidates whose parents or guardians were, on the 1st October, 1944, bona fide resident in the City of Limerick.

The parents' or guardians' income from all sources must not exceed £200 a year, but where there are children (other than the candidate) under 19 years of age dependent on the income of the parents or guardians, a quota of £40 over and above the £200 will be allowed for each dependent child.

Candidates for the scholarships must not be more than 13 years of age on the 1st August, 1944.

Copies of the Scholarships Scheme and forms of application may be obtained from the City Manager.

Completed application forms should be lodged with the City Manager not later than 4 o'clock p.m. on Friday, 1st December, 1944, and the attention of parents and teachers is called to the fact that under no circumstances can application forms be accepted after that date.
