

Death of Mr P Ryan

Fight For Freedom Recalled

The death has occurred in New York of Mr Patrick Ryan, Lacken, son of the late Mrs Matt Ryan, Knockfune, Newport, co. Tipperary, and brother of the late Mr M Ryan, T D.

In the war of independence the deceased was officer in command of the 6th Batt. North Tipperary Brigade, and served in Tipperary, East Limerick and Cork. During the civil war he fought on the Anti-Treaty side and was interned at Newbridge in 1923. He was elected to the Dail for Tipperary, but he never took his seat. In 1929 he emigrated to America; he was aged 46.
