

A Fifty Foot Fall

Child's Death in Limerick

A little boy named Shannon, aged about 4 years, living in Shannon street with his parents next door to the Stella Restaurant, was killed instantly when he fell from a window in the top storey of the building last evening, a distance of some 60 feet. When picked up from the pavement by passers by the little lad was beyond medical aid.
