
County Lady's Death

The death is announced of Miss Kate Dempsey, of Ballinroche, Patrickswell, a member of a very highly esteemed and much respected County Limerick family that formed extensively, and the attendance at her interment at Ovensora, which included members of all sections of the community, bore evidence of the popularity of the deceased lady, who died at an advanced age.
