Death of Mr. E. Dundon.

The death took place at his residence, Verona Esplanade, O'Connell Avenue, Limerick, on Sunday last of Mr Edward Dundon in his 87th year. Deceased gentleman was for many years, and up to his retirement on full pension over 20 years ago, Master of the old Limerick Union, and in that capacity proved a capability for this responsible position which had few equals in Ireland. In private life the late Mr Dundon was a most interesting companion and an engaging raconteur, and took a deep interest in everything appertaining to the welfare and progress of Limerick. He belonged to a well-known Co. Limerick family, and was uncle of Mr J J Dundon, Law Agent, Limerick Corporation; Mr J J Dundon, Chief Veterinary Officer, do, and Dr W P Dundon. Requiem Mass for the deceased's soul was celebrated at St. Michael's Church this (Tuesday) morning, at 10 a.m., and the funeral at 1 p.m. to the family burial ground at Adare was a huge and most representative cortege.
