

Sad City Deaths

Double Bereavement

A well known Limerick family has been doubly bereaved under very painful circumstances. On Wednesday last Mr Kevin Gallagher, Lower Hartstonge street, Limerick, died suddenly at Tarbert, while a member of the Defence Forces. His brother, Mr E J Gallagher, who was present at the interment in Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery on Thursday, died suddenly in the home of his sister in Hartstonge street on Saturday afternoon. Mr Gallagher, who was father of R. V. M. Gallagher, C.S.P., was an official of the British Petroleum Co, Dublin. The utmost sympathy is felt for the remaining members of the family—the Misses Lucy and Gretta Gallagher.
