

Ex-Bank Official's Death

Mr Robert S Kirby, whose death occurred with tragic suddenness in a Dublin hospital, was well-known in Youghal, where for many years he held, with credit to himself and his directors, the position of Manager of the Munster and Leinster Bank. Mr Kirby had only retired from the bank for scarcely one year, and in order to occupy himself during the retirement, it will be remembered he purchased the well-known Monastree Hotel, at Monastree, Youghal, which had been conducted so long and so capably by Miss O'Donovan, who retired from the hotel business a few years ago. Up to a few weeks ago the deceased gentleman had been staying at Youghal, and seemed to be in his usual health, and his death came as a great shock to his many friends. To his daughter and brother sympathy is extended in their bereavement. The funeral took place to Mount St Lawrence Cemetery, Limerick. Mr Kirby was a native of Limerick.
