

Murder Charge

Limerick Case

At a Special Court in Limerick on Saturday, before Mr J M Flood, M L, D J, Margaret Mary Harvey (23), of Querrin, Kilkee, again appeared on remand charged with the murder of her son, Michl Harvey, age 12 years and 7 months, whose body was found in a lake near Limerick on April 1st.

Accused was further remanded to a special court on Thursday next, when the State case will be opened and depositions taken.

Mr J J Power, State Solr, said the taking of depositions would occupy three days, and the justice said he would also sit on the following Monday and Wednesday.

The justice added that a section of the public were taking too sensational an interest in the case, and he had decided to close the court to the public when taking the depositions. Only the solicitors engaged in the case, Gardai, the witnesses and the Press would be admitted.
