

Child's Death

Co. Limerick Murder Charge

Justice C S Kenny, B L, at a special court in Adare granted a further remand in custody in the case in which Johanna Walsh, domestic servant, Knockboulda, Loughbill, is charged with the alleged wilful murder of her illegitimate child, Wm Coleman Walsh, born to her in or about the month of November, 1944.

Supt M McKenna, G S, Newcastle West, who with Sergt P Mulaney, Foynea, is in charge of the case, applying for the remand, stated that as investigations were not yet completed the State was not yet in a position to go on with the charge.

Mr R J Cassen, solr, Newcastle West, for the accused.