

Killed In Italy

Captain Richard Ledger King, who was killed in action with the British Forces in Italy, was a son of the late Mr Robert Ledger King, who lived in Bonis some years ago while he was manager of the West Clare Railway. His brother—Mr R Ledger King—is well known in musical circles in Clare and Limerick.