

Nonagenarian's Death

---

Well-Known Limerick Woman's Death

Limerick's oldest resident—Mrs Kate Madden—has died at her residence, Canal Bank, Limerick, at the age of 96. Her funeral took place on Saturday to Mount St Lawrence Cemetery, was followed by almost eighty grand-children and great-grand-children. Mrs Madden, who was about until three days before her death, was a bright, active old lady, whose house on the canal bank was invariably visited by citizens accustomed to taking an evening stroll along the embankment.