

Accident in Hurling Field

BOY'S DEATH

An 18 year old youth, Mossy White, son of Mr Patrick White, Relieving Officer, Charleville, received an accidental blow from a hurley during a school practice game on Thursday last. He was removed to the North Infirmary, Cork, where he died on Sunday evening.

A keen and enthusiastic G A A supporter, he had intended to make the trip to Cork to see the county football final on Sunday.
