DEATHS.

DONNELLY—On this morning, January 8th, 1945, at the City Hospital, Mrs. Mary (Ciss) Donnelly, of 35 Prospect Villas, Limerick. Deeply regretted.—R.I.P. Remains will be removed this (Monday) evening at 6 o'clock to St. Michael's Church. Funeral on tomorrow (Tuesday) at 3 o'clock to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

DUNDON—On January 7th, 1945, at his residence, 8 Verona Esplanade, O'Connell Avenue, Limerick, Edward Dundon (late Master, Limerick Union); deeply regretted.—R.I.P. Remains will be removed to St. Michael's Church this (Monday) evening at 8 o'clock. Requiem Mass to-morrow (Tuesday) at 10 o'clock. Funeral at 1 o'clock to Adare Cemetery.

LAWLOR (Limerick)—January 7, 1945, at Barrington's Hospital, Mrs. M. Lawlor, Ballysimon Road, Singland. R.I.P. Funeral took place to-day at 3 o'clock to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

NOONAN—On January 8th, 1945, at the Mater Hospital, Dublin, Cornelius Noonan (Publican), 108 Carey's Road, Limerick. Deeply regretted. R.I.P. Remains arriving by road this (Monday) evening to St. Michael's Church at 10 o'clock (approximately). Funeral arrangements later.

I asked him what he thought of it, and his answer I will never forget; it came in the swift musical Gaelic of Munster—"Ni thuigeann mo leitheid-se an ceol sin, ach tu ailneacht an domhain ann" ("My equals do not understand that music, but it has the beauty of the world in it").

A short time later he was laid to rest by the kindly folk amongst whom he had spent his life—a life that was simple and carefree, yet, perhaps, not altogether in vain. The memories that he has left behind in the territory of his wanderings serve as so many monuments, not merely to himself, but to the other wandering minstrels of Ireland, who have gone to the Great Beyond.

MONTHLY MEETING OF COMMITTEE

The monthly meeting of the Committee of the Old Limerick Society was held at the Muintir na Tire Rooms, The Crescent, on Friday, the 5th inst., Mr. T. F. O'Sullivan, B.E. (Chairman), presiding.

The other members present were: Messrs. E. Bennis, Alma Fitt, Eoin O'Kelly, R. Herbert, E. Hanrahan, Miss M. C. Gleeson (hon. treasurer), Mr. J. F. Walsh (hon. secretary), Mr. J. M. Keane (assistant hon. secretary).

An apology for non-attendance was received from Mrs. M. McMahon.

The Hon. Treasurer submitted a balance sheet, with a list of paid-up subscriptions to date, which was considered satisfactory. There are still, however, some members who have not yet responded to the appeal.

Correspondence was dealt with.

Mr. O'Kelly raised the question as to what progress was being made about the publication of the Soc-
