MR. JOHN LONG

The death took place at his residence, Ballinakill, Kiltinny, of John Long at an advanced age, on Monday, 15th January. To those who knew him he was a staunch, upright man, always willing to help those in need. He was the last surviving member of the Committee of the Kiltinny C.D.S. since its organisation in 1901. The large attendance at the funeral on Tuesday to Nantinan would testify to the esteem in which the Long family are held.

The officiating clergy at the graveside were Rev. F. W. Knowles, The Rectory, Croom, and Rev. W. R. R. Moore, The Rectory, Ballingarry.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. J. Long (widow), Reginald, Robert and Albert (sons), Mrs. R. Morrow (daughter), Mrs. Reginald Long (daughter-in-law), Michael and Samuel Long (brothers), John and Walter Long (nephews), Mrs. J. Keays, Mrs. H. Miller, Mrs. J. Alfred, Mrs. A. O'Neill, Mrs. and Mrs. R. Barkman, Mr H. Barkman, Mr. T. Shine, Mr. J. Micks, Mr. H. Miller, Mr. E. Shine, Mr. J. Alfred, Mr. and Mrs. W. Long, Misses R. and J. Long, Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, Mr. and Mrs. R. Baker (relatives).

The general public included:—Mr. and Mrs. T. McClelland; Squadron Leader R. D. L. Stedman, D. Hogan, H. Vokes, J. Hourigan, T. Lane, D. Shire, C. Cagney, M. Neville, M. O'Neill, J. Guirey, D. Kelly, H. Staff, D. Collins, J. Sheehy, T. Pigott, T. Noonan, Mrs. J. Cusson, Mrs. D. Shaughnessy, Mrs. N. Stephens, etc., etc.

"Island of Doomed Men," stars Peter Lorre and Rochelle Hudson.

THE SAVOY Lana Turner, James Craig and John Hodiak star in "Marriage is a Private Affair," which comes to the Savoy on Monday next. In this film Keenan Wynn has some glorious moments of comedy. Fifty stars, four bands, and twenty songs are the recommendations for Universal's "Follow the Boys," which opens on Thursday. The stars of the film are George Raft and Vera Zorina, while the guest stars include Jeanette MacDonald, Orson Welles and his Mercury Theatre Show, Marlene Dietrich, Dinah Shore, Donald O'Connor, Peggy Ryan, W. C. Fields and a host of others. It is a most interesting and entertaining film.

THE GRAND CENTRAL "Pin Up Girl" is attracting large houses at the Grand Central all this week. Owing to its enormous success it has been retained for all next week. The cast includes Betty Grable, John Harvey, Martha Ray, Joe E. Brown, Charlie Spivak and his orchestra, the Skating Vanities and the Condos Brothers.

RECENT WEDDING

The marriage was solemnised at St. Ita's Church Killeedy, on January 16th of Mr. Cornelius John Halpin, son of Mr. Cornelius Halpin and the late Mrs. Halpin, Knocknagoshel, County Kerry, and Miss Mary Brigid Hayes, daughter of Mr. David Hayes and Mrs. Julia Hayes, Ballyowen, Ballagh Charleville. Rev. Roger Hayes (brother of the bride), St. Mary's, Douglas, performed the ceremony with Nuptial Mass, assisted by Very Rev. C. O'Sullivan, P.P., Killeedy, and Rev. M. Frawley, C.C. Killeedy. The bride was given away by her father. Miss Nora Hayes, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Mr. James Halpin, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. A reception was given at the bride's home, at which many friends and relatives were entertained, after which Mr. and Mrs. Halpin, who were the recipients of numerous congratulatory messages and many presents, left on their honeymoon. The bridegroom, who is a popular figure in Kerry and Limerick, holds an important office in the Defence Forces. He is an athlete of no small prowess. The bride comes from a prominent and respectable west Limerick family, whose brothers are well known for their Gaelic football and hurling capabilities, and are second to but few in all branches of athletics.
