help to build up we cannot improve on the team that is in the front line at our premier game.

A Lesson To Be Learned.

Our great team of 1933-36 during those four years filled numerous engagements for such deserving objects until they played themselves to a standstill. The outside good objects can be overdone with neglect of home culture. Let us take care.

Munster Report.

I must thank the Secretary,
Munster Council, Sean McCarthy, Tralee, for his able and interesting report of provincial work. It is one of the finest detailed productions I have read for a long time. There are full particulars of the receipts and expenditure of the several Munster games with the balances on the right side. The comprehensive reports as published from the secretaries of the six counties should satisfy the most fastidious critic of what is done with all the money.

Another Draw.

Following the hurling draw at Galway, we had our footballers finishing up level at Croke Park on last Sunday in the Railway Cup competitions. Such results are compliments to the selectors and especially to the players of our counties, who in the majority of games are just separated by the oft repeated 2 points and now and then on level scores. The close finishes prove the close clashing during the games and are distinctive attractions to all good sports.

Murroe Parish Hurling League.

Glenstal and Cappanahana crossed camans on Sunday last, in the second round of the above league.
The former team won on the score of 9 points to 2 points for the Cappanahana. Three more matches are to be played off. They are as follows:—Abington v. Eyon on Sunday next; Glenstal v. Eyon on Sunday fortnight; Cappanahana v.
Abington on Sunday, the 25th of March.

SUGGESTED HURLING TEAM

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Dear Sir—I would esteem it a favour from you if you could find space in your paper and give the undermentioned matter publicity.

There has been a lot of controversy both inside and outside Limerick County as to the best possible hurling team which would be deemed fit to represent Limerick in the Munster Championships, etc.

As a Gael resident outside the county, and needless to mention having the interests of my county at heart, as every Limerick Gael should, I give what in my opinion would be the best possible team to represent Limerick in 1945:

M. Malone (goal)
Ml. McCarthy J. Power P. Cregan
(St. Ptk's) (Adare) (Croom)
J. Fitzgerald M. McCarthy P. O'Shea (Askeaton) (Army) (Ahane)
R. Stokes D. Keane
(U.C.D.) (Rathkeale)
J. Whelan J. Clohessy P. Fitzgerald
(Army) (St. Ptk's) (St. Ptk's)
M. Mackey T. Murphy M. Butler (Ahane) (Sarsfields) (Fedamore)
Subs.:—T. Larkin (Rathkeale), T. Cregan (Croom), P. Creamor (Cappamore), J. Tobin (Kilfnane)
