

...age now than

COLLECTORS.

aid that before the he wished to con- to the Council from ors. The latter re- r accounts audited r's report was an The rate collectors that an 85 per cent. a satisfactory one. was that £16,000, recoverable rates, ward against them They would like n would allow them matter with them in oncurred with Ald.

City Manager said him that the rate l come.

ceeding, suggested 0 be put into a unt so that the at be continually st them.

Law Adviser) said not be done.

A. Carew)—You can collectors that this ied with their col-id that he, too, was he rate collectors job.

d that during the s a lot of decrees ut by the Corpora- red if there could which the poorer d pay their rates ould help to keep d.

OF MONTHLY PMENTS.

aid it would be un- is a general prac- he rate collectors ly to facilitate as en, but to make it ice incumbent on to the last ringing notes of a triumphant chorus.

The war has brought many changes to that fair Bavarian land, but let us hope it has not interrupted the performance of the Passion Play. The men-folk of Oberammergau had to leave their quiet mountain valleys, and to-day many a mother laments her sons who poured out their life's blood on the thirsty sands of the desert or the white wastes of Norway, and many a wife laments her man who died in the valley of the Rhine or in the streets of far-off Stalingrad. The shadow of tragedy and terror still hangs over Europe. But let us hope that the thunder of the guns never breaks the peace of Oberammergau.

the collectors would not be fair.

Ald. O'Malley proposed, and Mr. Dcnnellan seconded, that the rate estimate as submitted by the Acting City Manager be adopted.

This was agreed to unanimously.

DEATHS.

CROWE (nee McDonogh) — On March 25th, 1945, at St. Vincent's Hospital, Dublin, Evelyn, dearly beloved wife of Phil. Crowe, Rose Cottage, Roxboro' Road, Limerick. Deeply regretted, by her loving husband, daughters and relatives. R.I.P. Solemn Requiem Mass at St. John's Cathedral to-morrow (Tuesday) at 10 o'clock. Funeral at 11 o'clock to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

KELLY—At her residence, 13 McDermot Avenue, Janesboro', Limerick, Mrs. Bridget Kelly (late of Garryowen). Remains will be removed at 9 o'clock this (Monday) evening to Mary, Queen of Peace Church, Janesboro'. Requiem Mass to-morrow at 10.30 a.m. Funeral at 3 o'clock to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

productions under Mr. Spencer are now a recognised feature of the cultural work of the school and city and a source of enjoyment and delight to Limerick audiences.

KILFINANE BRANCH I.C.A.

The branch of the Irish Country-women's Association formed at Kilfinane last December has since held successful monthly meetings at the Vocational School, Kilfinane, on the second Wednesday of each month. The officers of the branch are:—President, Mrs. J. Galvin; vice-president, Miss Nellie Bourke; treasurer, Mrs. Leo O'Shaughnessy; secretaries, Miss Margaret Wallis and Miss Mai Hutch; Press correspondent, Miss Eva Harris. Committee:—Mrs. J. Connery, Mrs. T. Murphy, Mrs. J. O'Donnell, Miss J. Hyland, Miss K. Hayes, Miss M. J. Hayes, Miss Brenda O'Rourke.

The forty enthusiastic members have had demonstrations in basket-making, poker-work, glove-making, and a garden talk.

Work nights follow the demonstrations, when what has been learned is put into practice.

Miss Mary O'Connor, temporary poultry instructress, has just concluded a series of lectures and demonstrations in poultry keeping. The members of the I.C.A. actively co-operated with the instructress to make the lectures the outstanding success they were.

VOTES OF SYMPATHY

At the meeting of the Limerick County Council on Saturday, sympathy was voted to the relatives of the late Very Rev. Canon Liston, P.P., Ardagh, on the proposition of Mr. O'Donnell. A similar vote was passed to the relatives of the late Rev. Mother Anthony Abbeyfeale, on the proposition of Mr. O'Connell.