MR. JAMES GRIFFIN, N.T.

The untimely demise of Mr. James Griffin, N.T., Principal teacher, Ballinacarriga N.S., Kildimo, which took place in Dublin on Saturday, 14th inst., has cast a gloom over the Parish of Kildimo and surrounding districts which will not easily be dispelled.

The sympathy of the whole parish goes out wholeheartedly to his young widow, who has been left bereft of her young husband after a short period of happiness and wedded bliss.

Cut off in the bloom of youth and in the prime of those faculties which were evident in the success of his labours for his pupils and in everything connected with the furtherance of their ambitions, his loss to the parish will not easily, if ever, be repaired. His outstanding ability, his whole-hearted enthusiasm and his zeal for his work were but a few of the characteristics which endeared him to all who had the good fortune to be associated with him in all matters connected with school, parish and public welfare work.

The remains, arriving from Dublin on Sunday night, 15th inst., were met by a huge cortege of people and were received at Kildimo Parish Church by Very Rev. John J. Canon Wallace, P.P., who recited the Rosary and prayers.

On Monday, 16th inst., the remains were accorded a military funeral with full honours as a tribute to the work of the deceased as Transport Officer of the Pallaskenry Co., L.D.F., in Kildimo Churchyard. The firing squad was in charge of Platoon Leader William Fitzgerald and the parade arrangements were carried out under the directions of Captain E. Cregan, District-Leader P. Hayes and Coy. Leader George Wallace.

The officiating priests at the graveside were:—Very Rev. J. Canon Wallace, P.P., Kildimo; Rev. P. Lynch, P.P., Stonehall; Rev. Father McDonell, C.C., Pallaskenry; Rev. Father Hanna, S.C., and Rev. Father O'Donovan, S.C.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. C. Griffin (widow), Mr. P. Griffin (father), Rev. Bro. Columbus (St. John of God), Messrs. G., John and Patrick (brothers), Mrs. Casey and Lily (sisters), Mr. P. Casey (brother-in-law), Mrs. J. Griffin (sister-in-law), Miss J. Goggin, Mrs. Goggin, Mr. E. Goggin, Mr. J. Goggin, Miss K. Goggin, Mrs. J. Cahill and family (relatives).

OBITUARY

MR. P. SALMON, BANDMASTER

The death took place on the 18th inst. of an esteemed citizen in the person of Mr. P. Salmon, bandmaster, who had a long association with local and other bands throughout the country, including those of the Twenty-Six Counties. The late Mr. Salmon had rendered useful service to the many bands with which he was connected, and his passing has evoked widespread sympathy. He was a son of the late Mr. Joseph Salmon, Castle St., Limerick, who was well known in trade and political circles. The family have received many messages of condolence on their bereavement. The funeral, which took place from St. Mary's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery on Saturday last, was largely attended. The St. Mary's Band were present to pay a last tribute to one of their oldest and most faithful members.

"THERE'S SOMETHING IN RENNIES"

Says this Sufferer from Indigestion and Palpitation

"There is evidently something in Rennies that no other tablets have," [illegible] wrote, and how right she is. Read her letter.

"My age is 50, and I have always been pretty fit, except for palpitation caused through indigestion. I have suffered from it for over twenty years. I was afraid to eat, and had only dry biscuits and very small dinners. I got very thin and in my soul was very worried about my health. A neighbour asked me to try Rennies, and to my surprise they suited me. Now I am very thankful to say I am much stronger and able to carry on. There is evidently something in Rennies that no other tablets have, because I tried everything. Now I can eat almost anything, but I make sure I always have a good supply of Rennies."—Mrs. A. M. W.

As the analysis printed on each packet shows Rennies are a combination of 35 separate ingredients, specially blended to bring speedy and complete relief from indigestion, excess acidity, and other stomach troubles.

All chemists sell Rennies 7d. and 2/- box.

DOCTORS MUST KNOW MORE

Dispensary doctors will be required to know more about maternity and child welfare in future, according to Dr. Con Ward's plans. Dr. Ward, who is head of the health section of the Department of Local Government, is preparing a plan which will call for specialised or post-graduate training for future appointees to these positions. A suggestion that dispensary districts should be made larger has not found approval with the Department.
