MISS MARY (MINNIE) FOLEY, BALLINGOOLA, GRANGE.

With very deep regret we announce the death of Miss Mary (Minnie) Foley, which took place at her residence, Ballingoola, Grange. The late Miss Foley was a member of a highly respected family, well known throughout the County and City of Limerick. For some time back the deceased had been in failing health and she passed peacefully to her end on Saturday morning last. The remains were removed to Herbertstown Parish Church on Sunday evening. Requiem Mass was offered up for the repose of her soul on Monday and the funeral took place the same day to the family burial ground at Inch St. Lawrence. On both occasions there was a very large cortege, which goes to testify the esteem in which the late Miss Foley and the other members of her family are held.

The clergy present were:—Very Rev. Canon McCarthy, P.P., Hospital; Rev. Father Foley, P.P., Knockainey; Rev. Father Sampson, P.P., Ballybricken; Rev. Father Fitzgerald, C.C., Herbertstown, and Rev. Father Bergin, C.C., Hospital.

The chief mourners were—Michael and James Foley (brothers), Miss Josie Foley and Mrs. M. Guerin (sisters).

the purchasers being, respectively, Mr. James Ryan, Gurtshane, and Mr. Michael O'Malley, Madaboy. Other prices were from 14½ to 19 gns. The sale was considered highly satisfactory and supplies a long felt want in Newport.

RUGBY UNITY DANCE

As will be seen from advertisement on front page of this issue the three senior clubs—Bohemians, Garryowen and Young Munster—are running a unity dance at the Rink Ballroom every Friday, commencing this evening. It only now remains for the members and supporters of all clubs and particularly those of the sponsoring clubs, to make the venture a success by their attendance. The augmented Rink Orchestra of ten instrumentalists, under the leadership of Johnny McMahon, will supply the music. For further details see advertisement.
