(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Dear Sir—Now that minor hockey has been revived in Limerick, why not try revive cricket by starting a minor league? Cricket, although a great game, seems to be unknown to most Limerick sportsmen. We would like if some cricket official got a league started for this season. A minor league, i.e., under 18 years of age, would be most welcome to Limerick boys. Thanking you, sir,

"YOUNG ENTHUSIASTS."

He had been attached to Glenstal Priory for some years and left in 1939, when he was called up to take his place in the Belgian Army. The notice of his death states that "with exceptional fortitude he en- couraged the other prisoners who shared his misery. He died from prison conditions."
