EAST LIMERICK I.C.A.

The Irish Countrywomen's Association (writes our Fedamore correspondent) are planning a big outing for next Sunday, at Lough Gur. All the East Limerick branches will be represented. A varied programme is planned, and it may well be that an echo of the laughter and songs will reach the Great Earl, and his warriors, as they sleep in the heart of Knockadoon. The Fedamore Branch had a very interesting lecture on India recently. It was given by Dr. Dobbins, a native of that far-off land. Dr. Dobbins also displayed the Indian dress and explained the different draperies.

DEATH OF AN ESTEEMED FIGURE

Sincere regret has been occasioned in Newcastle West and district by the death of Mr. William McAuliffe, Meenoline, Templeglantine, who passed away on Monday, after a comparatively short illness. Deceased, who belonged to an old and esteemed West Limerick family, was brother of Mr. Denis McAuliffe, M.C.C., Newcastle West, and of Mr. Cornelius McAuliffe, Ahawilk, Feohanagh. There was a very large and representative attendance at the funeral to Templeglantine on Tuesday.

PLEA OF MANSLAUGHTER ACCEPTED

Johanna Walsh (30), domestic servant, Knocknaboula, Foynes, Co. Limerick, was, in the Central Criminal Court, Dublin, on Monday, sentenced to five years penal servitude for the manslaughter of her child, aged four months, in March last. She had been charged with murder, but the State accepted her plea of manslaughter.

SPORTSMAN'S DANCE

Major Watt and his band were unavoidably unable to fulfil their engagement at the Sportsman's Dance at Tipperary. Miss Edie Campbell's Band, Cork, supplied the music instead. Over 800 patrons attended.

chain, each generation adding to its many links, thereby keeping alive a pastime that will ever live, no matter what tide befalls our ancient little island. In their discussion all agreed that the great want to-day in our Gaelic contests is a side-line committee. The onus on any one man, such as a captain, is far too much. Bob Stack says the great status of the Kerry footballers must be attributed not to the players themselves but to the wise and brainy counsel they got from their predecessors who manned the side-line at all their important clashes.

DEATHS IN FEDAMORE AREA

Within the last fortnight (writes our Fedamore correspondent) death has removed three esteemed members of the community from Fedamore district. They were Mr. Tom Hederman, Mrs. J. Hayes and Mrs. C. Condon. A member of the L.S.F. since its inception, Mr. Hederman never missed a parade. This was an achievement, as he had to walk three miles to the meeting place. The big funeral gave testimony of the respect in which he was held. The L.S.F. was represented by D.Q.M. J. Ryan and G. Ldr. H. O'Brien. Mrs. Condon was mother of P'Ldr. M. Condon, L.D.F.; W. Condon (8th Army) and Mrs. A. Clohessy. It was a happy coincidence that her son, W. Condon, was at home some time before her death. Having gone through the African campaign, he was captured during the invasion of Italy and was imprisoned in Italy and Germany. At the end of the European War he was released and is at present home on leave. The L.D.F. was represented by M. J. Moloney, Area Adjutant, and P. Clohessy, Co.C.

Mrs. Hayes, of Glenogra, was mother of Mr. Denis Hayes and aunt of the Collins family of Kilkashen and Limerick and of the Power family of Roxboro' and the Railway Hotel.
