THE PADDOCKS, LIMERICK.

WEEKLY DAIRY MARKET.

Tuesday, July 24th—Full seasonable entry, with a fair proportion of heifers. Usual attendance. Firm demand for promising medium sized cows and heifers, which were early bid for and wanted. Dairy cows of the light stamp enquired for, and changed hands at late rates. Satisfactory clearance. Top price was obtained by Mr. Jos. Fogarty, Herbertstown, for a calved heifer at £29, the runner-up being Mr. J. J. Callinan, Knockg., at £28. In-calf and calved heifers, promising, £24 to £29; dairy cows, promising, £20 to £25.—Wm. B. Fitt & Co., Auctioneers.

WEEKLY CATTLE AND SHEEP MARKET.

Wednesday, July 25th—Cattle—Entry not as heavy as last week. Usual attendance of buyers, both export and local. Useful show of stock, but not up to the standard of recent markets. Nice quality heifers and bullocks in fair demand, especially heavy weights, in fair demand, especially heifers, at current rates. Fresh young beef cows steadily placed at full values; secondary and older cows also in fair demand. Market cleared up early. Small entry of stores; promising young feeders with condition in brisk demand at steady rates. Good enquiry for use-cattle. Nice yearlings, both heifers and bullocks, with shapes and colour, met firm demand. Proceedings in the store section were marked with a much healthier and firmer tone, with a slightly hardening tendency in prices. Round steady demand for useful cattle, and exceptionally good clearance. Fat heifers and bullocks, small, £21 to £25-15s.; fat cows,

I am thinking of you to-day, John

Thinking of you and the past,

Picturing you in my memory

Just as I saw you last.

If all the world were mine, Johnnie,

I'd give it, yes and more,

To clasp your hand and see you smile,

And hear you say "Paddy" once more.

Never forgotten and dearly missed by

SWIMMING NO

(By "F. J. R.")

The Army Gala held at the Dock on Monday night which was reported at length in our Wednesday issue, proved a most interesting fixture largely patronised. The visiting attractions were rough swimmers and Willie (Cork), holder of a number of Munster championships. Of course, had little difficulty retaining his 220 yards title looks as if he will monopolise senior championships again this year. Blue Star retained their junior squad championship, some disappointment felt at Dolphin's failure to field a squad for this event.

A CHALLENGE

Blue Star have now challenged Dolphin to a squad race in Cork on the 31st August. The challenge is being accepted by Donogh O'Malley is vigorously putting up a cup which was won on Monday night. The race and it is expected there will be a rare meeting between the clubs for the trophy. Incidentally, the cup win broke a long spell of bad luck in handicap events. The Blue Star will be all out to avenge last year's defeat at the hands of Dolphin in the Munster Championships. The Limerick Club can be relied upon to make every effort to retain their unbeaten record as a junior club. There is keen competition for fourth place on the local scene and it will be given to the winner of the deciding race among so many dozen club members who are running for it.

In Brief.

Thomond S.C. are anxious to stimulate interest in water polo locally and have challenged Blue Star to a game. They are starting a league in their own area and hope as well to get entries from the schools and other clubs to start an open league. St. Michael's S.C. will hold their gala on 19th of August. The 100 yards breast-stroke champion of Limerick will be on
