DEATH OF MISS B. LEAHY, ABBEYFEALE

The death of Miss Betty Leahy, elder daughter of Mr. Henry D. Leahy and Mrs. Leahy, Main Street, Abbeyfeale, and grand-daughter of the late Mr. Dan Leahy, solicitor, which occurred at the early age of 26, is much regretted by numerous friends and relatives in West Limerick and Kerry (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). Gentle, unassuming, and blessed with an engaging manner, she was beloved in the family circle, and endeared to her acquaintances, who will miss her happy and cheery companionship. There was a very large attendance of the general public at her funeral and interment in the old Abbey cemetery. The Children of Mary Sodality attended in their capes and veils, and the prayers at the graveside were read by the Rev. J. Halpin, C.C., Rev. J. Liston, C.C., and Rev. C. Daly, C.S.Sp., Blackrock College.

DEATH OF MRS. J. J. KEANE, KNOCKANROE

The death of Mrs. Jeremiah J. Keane, of Knockanroe, Duagh, which occurred after a brief illness, came as a shock to her bereaved husband and numerous relatives in Abbeyfeale and throughout North and East Kerry (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). Only a few years married, her death at the age of 33, and a lady of exceptional charm and kindly feelings, accounted for the widespread sympathy her unexpected demise occasioned. Her funeral to Knocknagoshel Cemetery at Knockane on Sunday was of extremely large proportions, including as it did many from Abbeyfeale, Duagh, Knocknagoshel, Newtownsandes, Listowel, Castleisland, etc.

The prayers at the graveside were read by the Rev. Father Griffin, P.P. Duagh; Rev. Father Scanlan, P.P. Knocknagoshel; Rev. Father O'Keeffe, C.S.Sp., Kilshane; Rev. Father Curran, C.C.

SETTLEMENT FOR £500

The President of the High Court, Dublin, on Friday, accepted a consent to settlement for £500, including costs, in favour of Michael O'Keeffe, farmer, Ballyknock, Kilnamona, Co. Clare, who had brought an action against Morgan McInerney and Sons, Market Street, Ennis, for damages for injuries sustained when, it was stated, he was struck by a moving sawbench at defendant's sawmill on 9th February, 1944. Mr. O'Keeffe had suffered a fracture to the right hip.
