An inquest is being held this evening.

DEATH OF A RETIRED TEACHER

He was husband of Mrs. Nellie Mullane, ex-N.T., Principal of Glin Infants' School who, owing to ill-health, retired some years ago. He was son-in-law of the late Mr. Con Mullane, merchant, Glin, and prominent member of Glin Land League Committee in the 'eighties. Deepest sympathy is offered his widow, son, Mr. Joseph Mullane, and other members of his family.

THE HARVEST IN WEST LIMERICK

Most of the meadowing has now been saved in Abbeyfeale and outlying districts, and hay-barns are already being stocked in time to meet the call of the grain reaping, and the transfer of the turf from the bogs in the outlying areas. The crops in general are good; little blight has so far made its appearance and not much of the grain has been lodged.

The prices charged range from 1/6 to 3/- each. Shopkeepers, who say the combs are not worth more than a few pence, are wondering how supplies, which they find it very hard to get, are available to the hawkers.
