DAILY CATTLE AND SHEEP MARKET.

Day, August 8th—Cattle—Entry was larger dimensions than last week, and best for some time. In the beef section nice well-fed heifers met a ready market and were easily cashed; medium weight calves came in for attention, and in some cases more money than last week; some cows on offer were readily cashed; for bullocks in strong demand and easily sold; two-year-old bullocks and heifers also, and those on sale changed hands showing an increase on recent quotations. In the horse section also came in for attention. Today there was all round steady selling for promising useful cattle. Strong demand of buyers, and a most satisfactory sale was effected. Fat heifers and bullocks, £27 10s. to £32 5s.; second run
